DEDICATION

We, the 1950 CEDARS Staff, could not decide on any individual or particular group of individuals to whom we could dedicate our yearbook. We did agree, however, that it would be fitting and proper that we show recognition in some way to all of our friends and school patrons.

To you, the readers of this book, we sincerely and respectfully dedicate the 1950 edition of THE CEDARS.

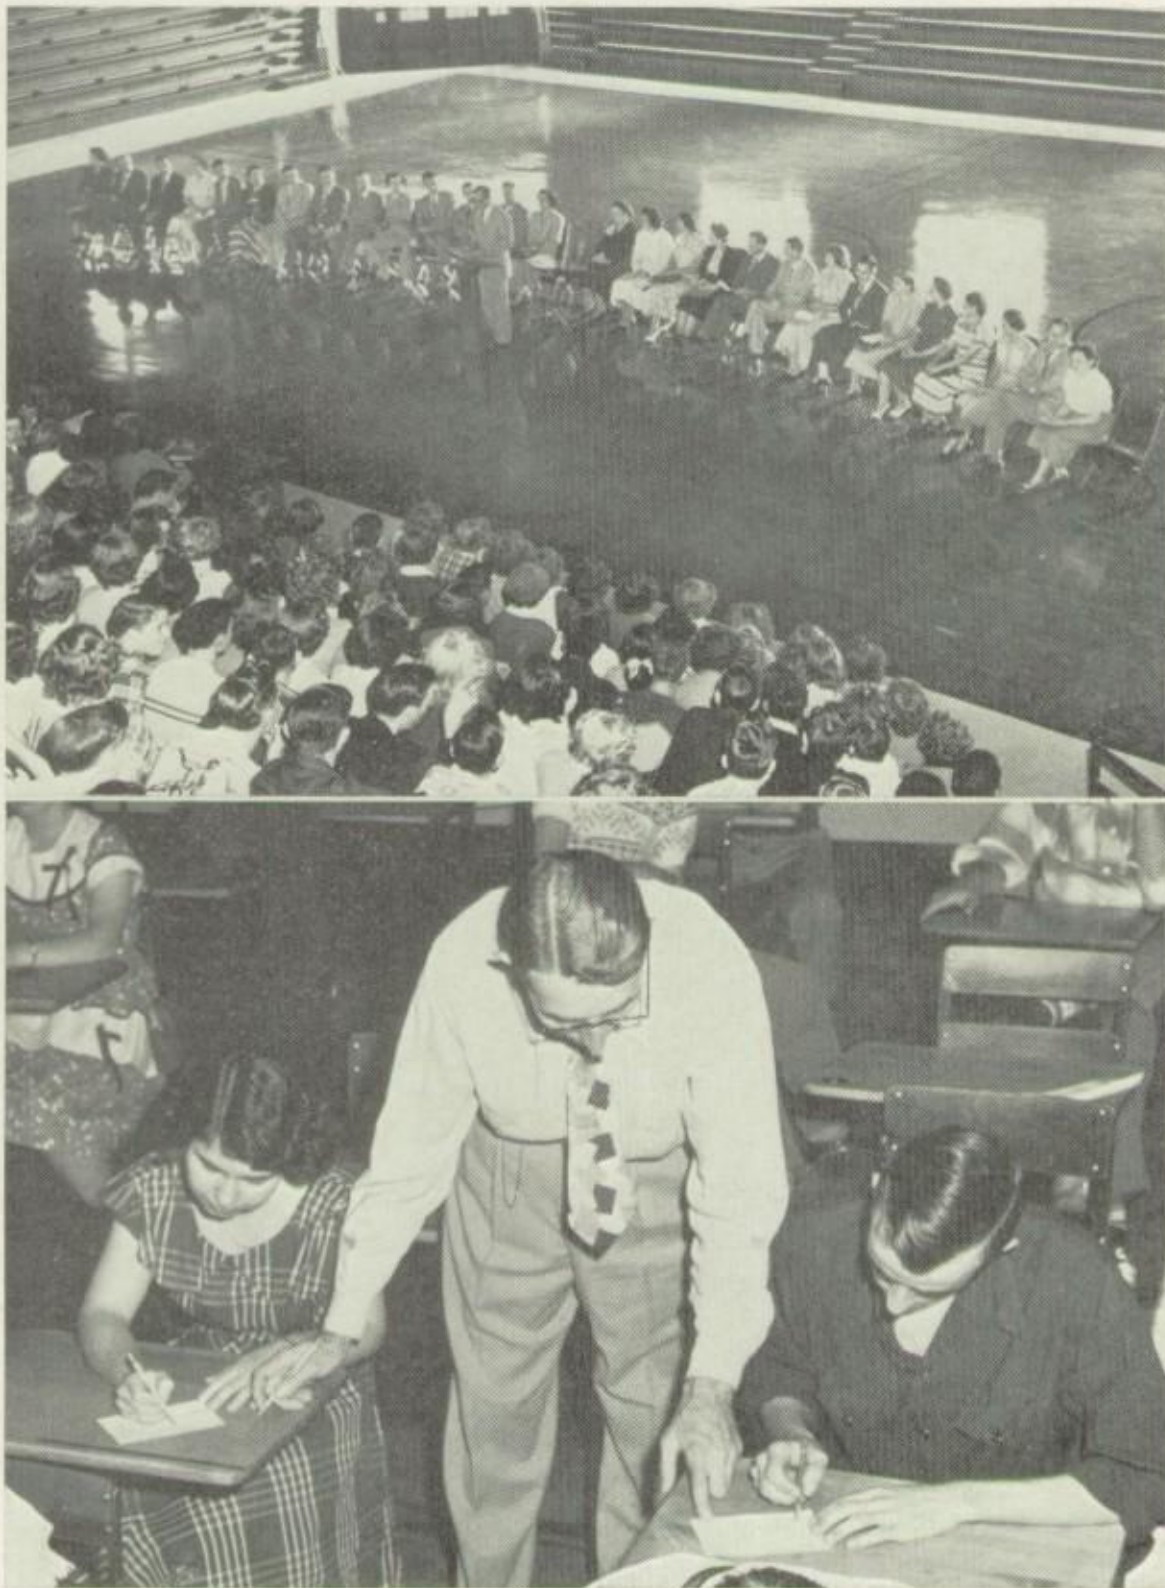

THE CEDARS 1950

LEBANON HIGH SCHOOL AT THE TURN OF THE
SECOND HALF OF THE 20TH CENTURY - - - A HISTORI-CAL RECORD PUBLISHED BY A STUDENT STAFF THAT WAS HEADED BY.....

My Year Was Filled

Prom Queen Crowning

Junior Prom Queen Faedetta Maple was crowned by Lois Jeanne McRoberts, 1948 queen. Herbert McRoberts, Faedetta's escort, assisted his sister in the crowning ceremony.

Queen and Her Court

Faedetta's court consisted of Rose Marie Lambert, Jane Reinke, Mary Frances McKenzie, Beverly Paxson, Marcia Miller, and Mary Winkler. Their escorts were: Tom Honan, John Yates, Clarence Boyland, Bob Voorhis, Gary French, and Jon Kneip.

With Big Events . . .

Prom Octette

Umbrellas, flowers, pastel colors and green grass set the scene for the 1949 Junior-Senior Prom held on April 22 at the Lebanon Armory. Rain on the outside did not dampen the spirits of those attending the well-named "April Showers Prom."

Using "April Showers" for their theme song these nine Juniors entertained with a number of songs and illustrative skits pertaining to rain, silver linings, rainbows and rivers. From left to right they are: Jack Trowbridge, Frank Barrett, Helen Ruth Isenhour, Mary Frances McKenzie, Charlotte Korteling, Marcia Miller, Richard Nichols, David Richey, and the Master of Ceremonies, Robert Shanks.

Dear Seniors:

This will be our last big event with you. In a few weeks you will be alumni. But before you have to go into the world to seek your fortunes and careers, let Johnny Junior tell you he'll miss you. We will have to be good next year to be as good as you. We will miss you in the halls, we will miss you in the gym, we will miss you at next year's prom. But knowing that all good things must come to an end, we of the class of 1950 send you into the world wishing you "good luck," and if April Showers ever do come your way we hope you find the Blue Bird.

Signed:

THE JUNIOR CLASS.

Basketball Season Tickets

Although there wasn't the usual long wait in home rooms, the same anxious spirit for the basketball season appeared as the season tickets went on sale for the 1949-50 season.

Senior Dinner Party

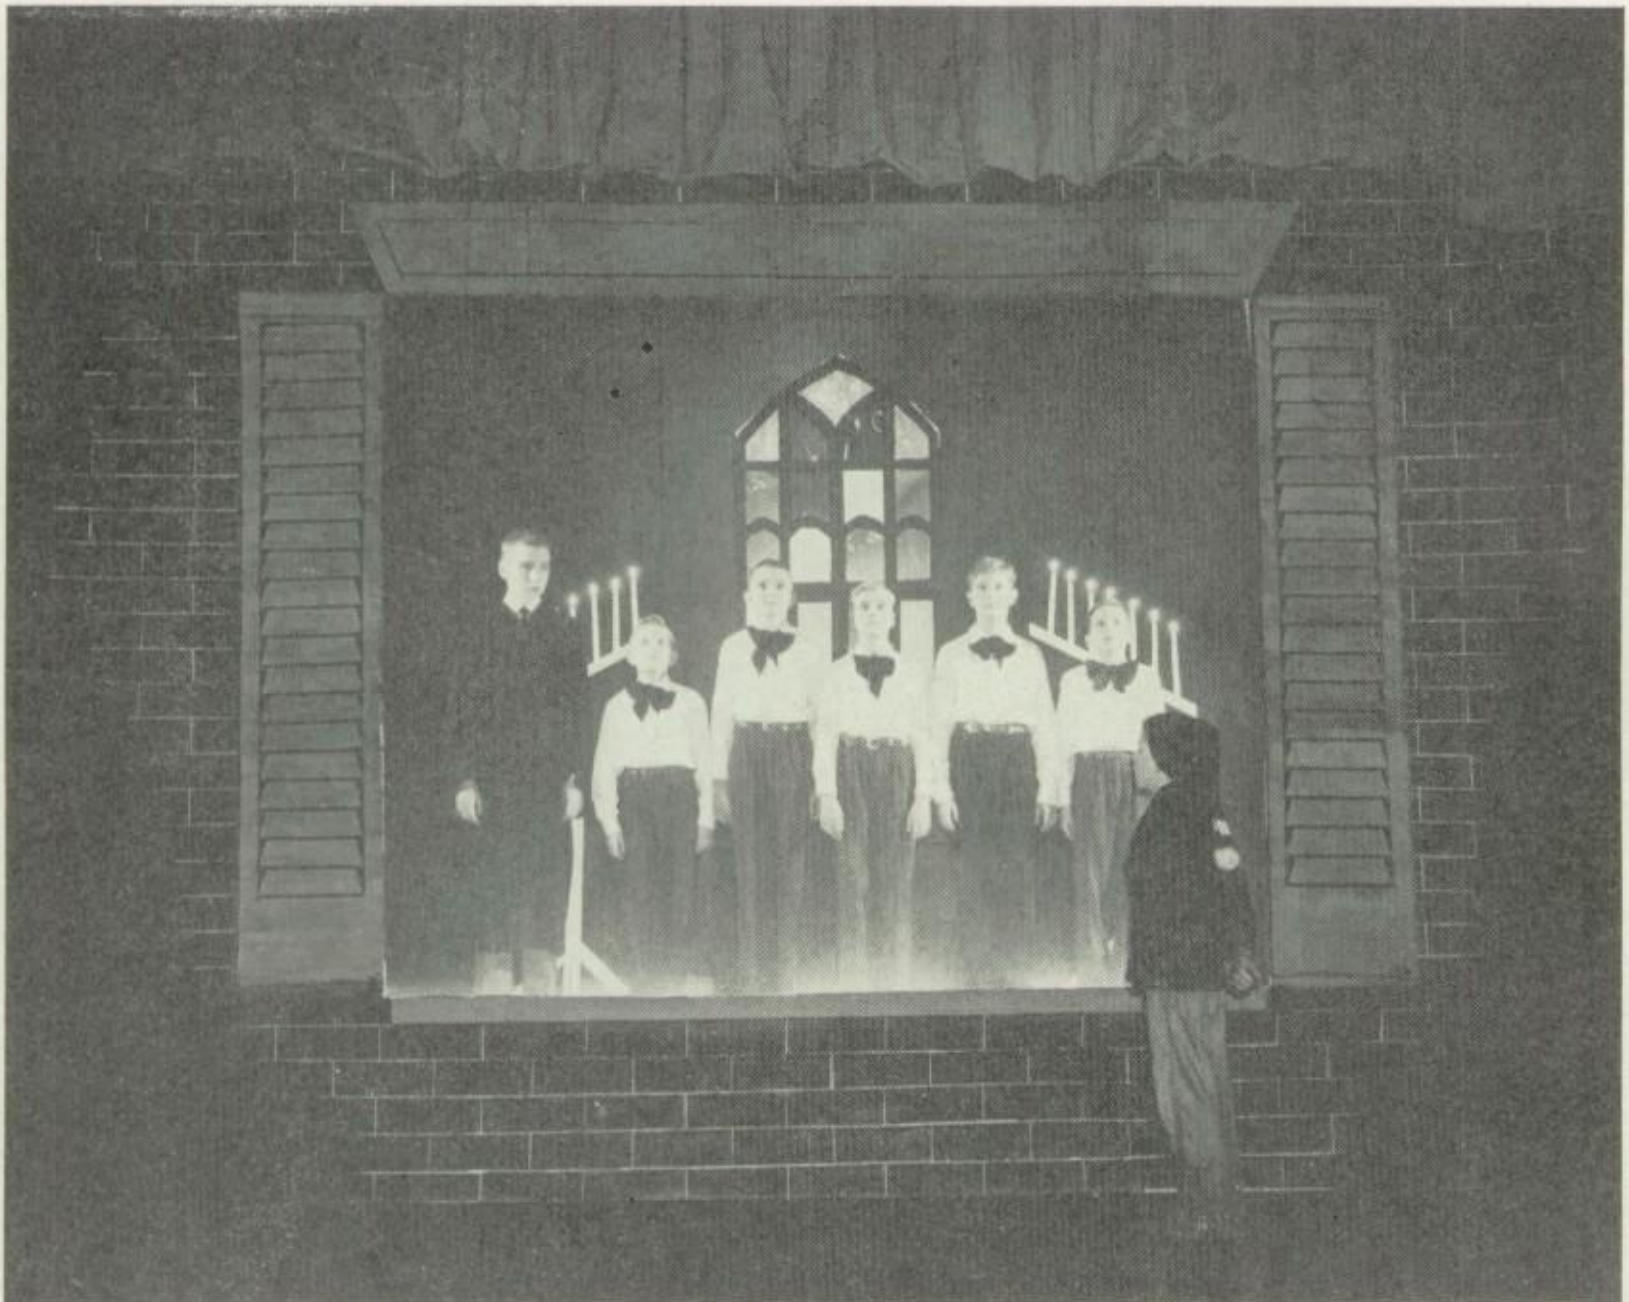

Marked up as strictly a Senior Class celebration was the "Green Years" dinner party (pictured at the left) held at the Methodist Church on October 21. The usual Candelabrum Ceremony was conducted besides speeches, a boys' singing group, a cornet solo, a girls' octet and group singing. This engraved an important page on our book of high school memories.

Vespers Service

One of our most beautiful and impressive convocations is the annual Vespers Service held prior to Thanksgiving vacation. The service is made possible by members of the Senior Sunshine Society, Hi-Y Club, three readers from the Dramatics Department, the glee club and members of the band. The Thanksgiving Day observation is under the direction of Mrs. Jane Ward.

Mr. DeBard and Lebanon's first orchestra in many years made their initial appearance on the Vespers program.

Christmas Plays

"Christmas Windows" closed the school Christmas festivities before vacation. It is the old story of the Christ child coming to earth to find refuge from the winter weather in a home where love rules. The Glee Club furnished music between sets and Lebanon's new orchestra played before and after the plays.

Christmas Tree

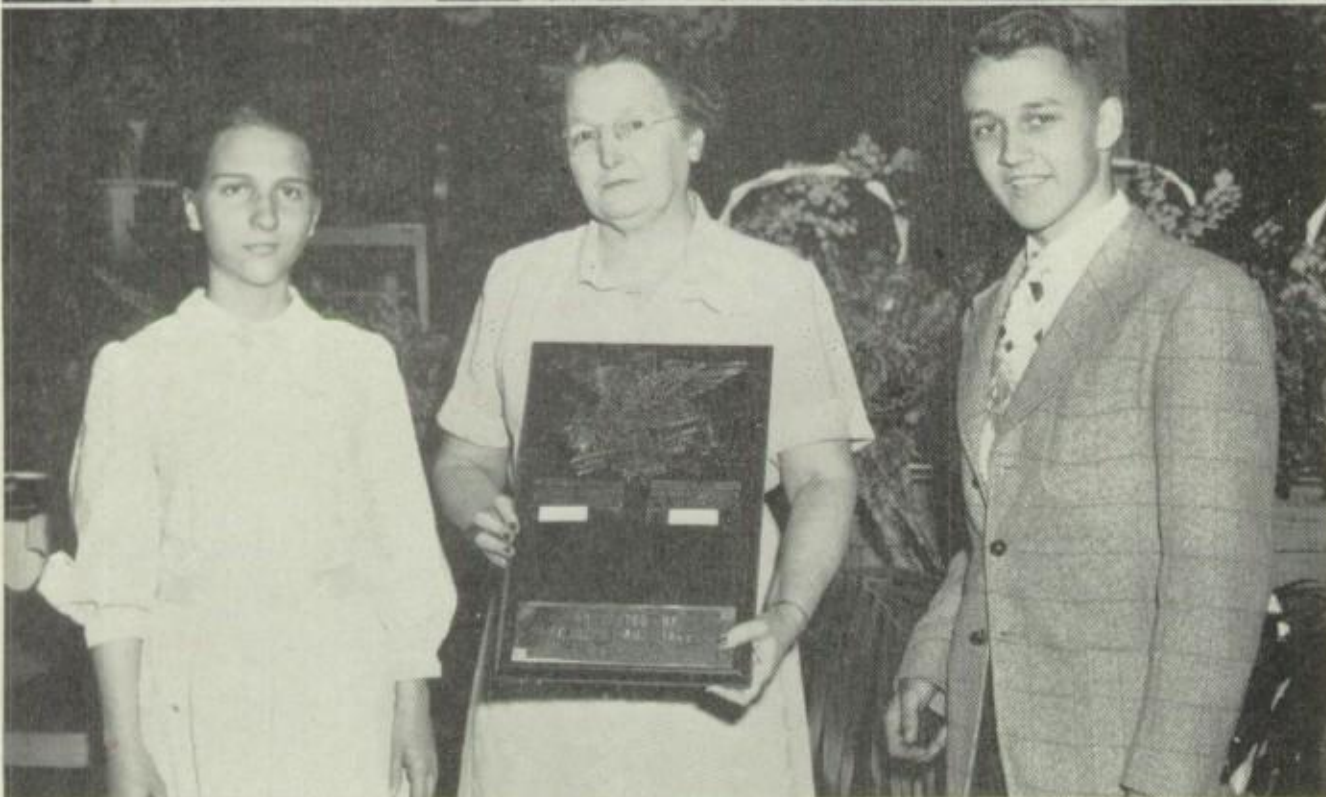

Around Christmas a beautifully decorated tree can be seen in the lower hall of the Senior High building. These decorations can be credited to Miss Beckett and her Solid Geometry Class who construct most of the ornaments out of a single piece of paper.

HONORS DAY

Honors Day, which was established approximately twenty-two years ago in Lebanon, is the time when all efforts and achievements of the school year are justly and formally given recognition by awards.

Every student has an equal chance for an award of some kind for awards are given in almost every department, club, and class. Special awards are given to those who have contributed a little more than required to make Lebanon a school of the highest standard. Those who demonstrate the finest traits of character and courtesy, co-operation and responsibility are also honored at this time. Extra opportunities for awards are provided through tests, tournaments and contests given by the school and through outside organizations.

Honors Day makes all sacrificed time and effort seem a little more worthwhile; only those who put forth the effort may receive the satisfactions and benefits to be derived therefrom.

Little Events . . .

COLLEGE DAY

College Day was established two years ago in Lebanon High School to aid the upper-classmen in choosing a college or university for further training. It also gives an opportunity to those who have already picked a college to attend to be informed more fully on the cost, requirements, courses offered, activities, and living accommodations of that particular institution.

Representatives from every Indiana college for which interest is shown by LHS juniors and seniors come to Lebanon for this program. Individual college groups are formed and in an informal, friendly discussion our students get a fine understanding about the college of their choice.

May Fest Activities

Prior to the May Fest celebration, four grade school Cub and Brownie scouts performed the customary flag raising ceremony used before all school activities. The scouts were Helen Byroad, David Neuman, James Shirk, and Melba Caldwell.

All grades from the first through the sixth from every city grade school took part in the celebration. Here one of the grades turns a nursery rhyme into a dance.

Older grade school students performed calisthenics and gymnastics learned in Physical Education classes. Some Junior High and Senior High Physical Education classes also demonstrated their abilities in tumbling, wrestling, volleyball, and basketball.

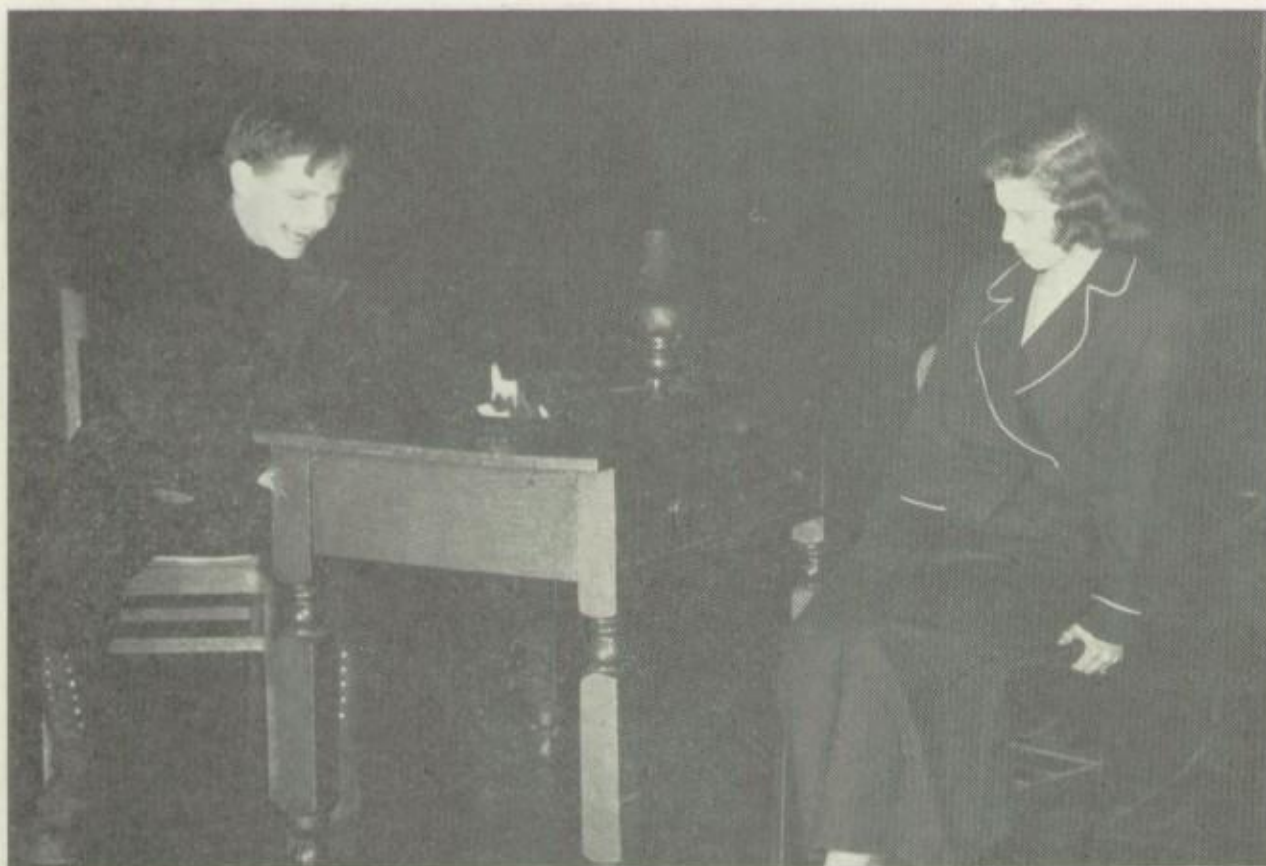

May Queen and Court

May Queen, Annabelle Miller reigned over the 1949 May Fest along with her court including Janet Hawkins, Ann Hiatt, Mina Baker, Nancy Dillon, Peggy Lindley and Carol Green.

May Pole Dance

May would not be complete without the traditional May Pole dance performed by the freshman girls to close the annual festivities.

"WHERE THE CROSS IS MADE"

Players in this scene are Dick Nichols and Thelma Staton.

"THE TRYSTING PLACE"

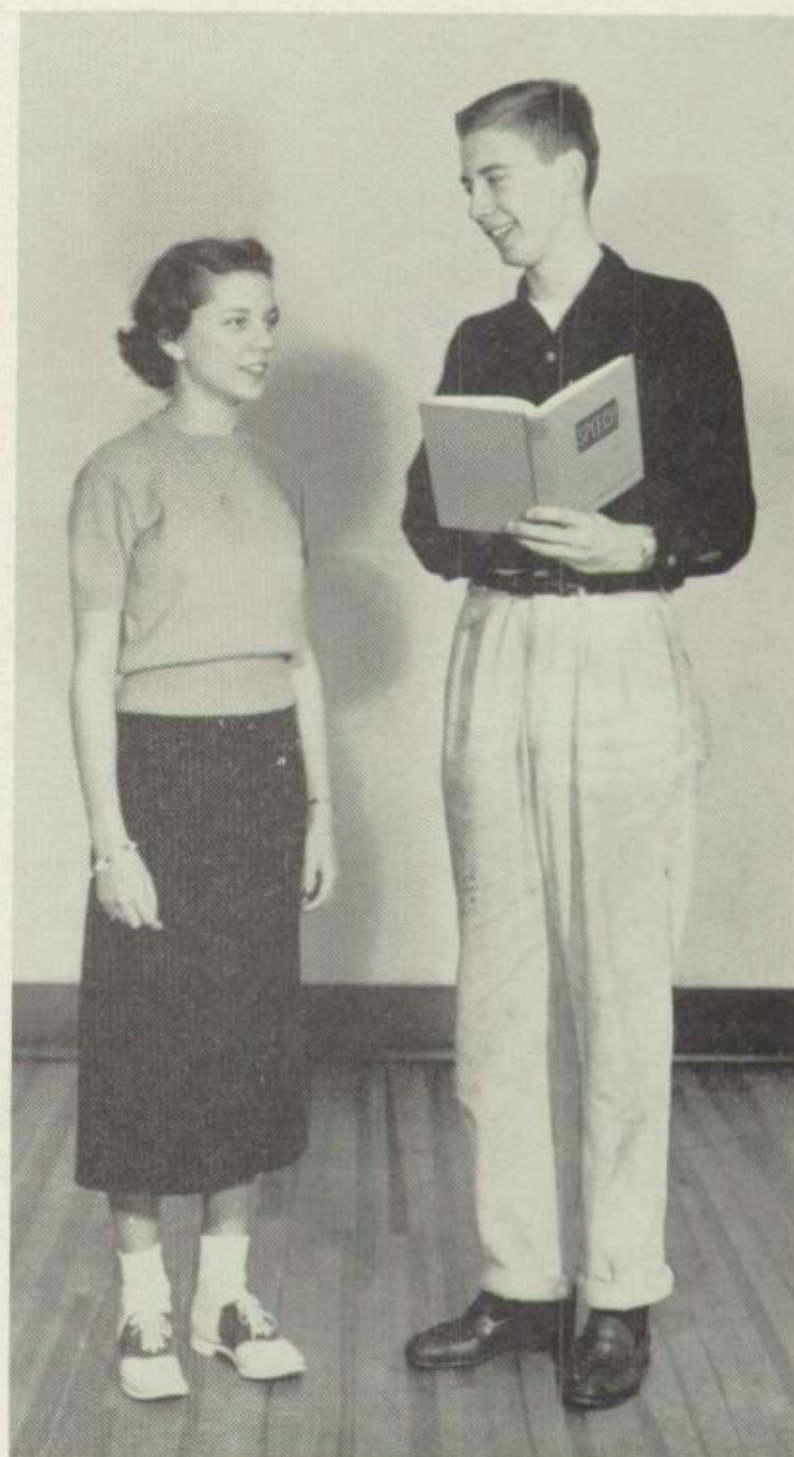

Here you see Charlotte McClaine, Bob Robison, Bob Warren, and Patsy Newman.

Dramatics

Ordinary dramatic students became stars after the January productions of "Where the Cross is Made" and "The Trysting Place" directed by Mrs. Jane Ward. Many of the actual workers go unrecognized by the audience because they are backstage, but wherever they are or whatever they are doing, it all adds up to a good year for the Dramatics Department.

Central Indiana Oratorical Winners

L. H. S. entrants in the Central Indiana Oratorical Contest were Charlene Kincaid, who won first place in the girl's division, and David Richey, who entered the boy's division. Other contesting schools were Crawfordsville, Jefferson of Lafayette, West Lafayette, Delphi, and Frankfort, where this year's contest was held.

Principal's Office

Those Who Guided Me . . .

Vacation time? Not at all. Students of LHS are very familiar with an entirely opposite picture. The scene on the opposite page is rather an unfamiliar one for it is seldom that the principal's office isn't buzzing with activity. Students and faculty members make this part of the building one of the busier sections during a normal school day. This office, however, is but one area in which administrative functions are performed. The school is for the students but it could not exist without the guidance and work put forth by our school board of education, superintendent, principals, dean of girls, and the teachers in every department. Through their efforts we acquire knowledge from which we benefit.

Our faculty goes to school, too. Several LHS teachers have spent their summer months and winter evenings attending colleges and universities very recently to further their training and to obtain advanced degrees.

On the following pages are pictures of our administration and faculty and a listing of their assigned teaching duties and extra-curricular activities.

Administration . . .

SUPERINTENDENT OF SCHOOLS

Superintendent of the Lebanon city schools is the main duty of Mr. Thomas L. Christian. Other minor responsibilities of this busy man are being in charge of school records and the sale of textbooks.

BOARD OF EDUCATION

Members of the school board of education are Mr. W. H. Parr, Jr., Mr. Harry Harlow, and Mr. Clyde Perkins.

CLERKS

Important clerical work for the principal and superintendent is done by Miss Hazel Shahan, Miss Lois Hiland, and Mrs. Christina Bush.

Mr. Paul W. Neuman, principal, is one of the main "spokes" in the "running wheel" of Lebanon High School. He not only runs his office but is a friendly advisor to all students.

Mrs. Stephenson, Assistant Principal, keeps the Junior High School in smooth running order. She also is in charge of the testing program.

Miss Betty Arnsman, Dean of Girls, assists and advises, besides keeping the books for the Senior High School.

For Tomorrow . . .

My Classes . . .

In this next section you will see scenes of some of the many classes that fellow students and I attended. We LHS students think we are pretty lucky that so many varied curricular opportunities are made available to us. Here we have a chance to enlarge upon our individual interests in the way of subject matter. We have our theory courses and we have our skill and vocational courses. The care taken by our administration and faculty in choosing and teaching these courses may be one of the important reasons why we have such a low percentage of "drop-outs" by our student population when that important age of sixteen years is reached.

The scene on the opposite page is familiar to all students of Mr. Neeves. Mr. Neeves, however, is doing what several of our teachers do after school is out in the afternoon—getting ready for the next day's classes.

Now let's look at some of these classes that made my year at LHS so pleasant and educational. . . .

Classroom

Manual Arts Department

Manual arts students are the future mechanics, carpenters, electricians, and general "handy men." They keep our building in good shape with their almost professional repairing jobs.

Home Economics

It isn't easy concentrating on lessons while the foods classes send tantalizing aromas through the halls. Practical application will make these girls ready for the future in homes and business. Not only are these girls being educated but they lend a hand to the lunch-room with some of their finished products.

Scenes .

Vocational Agriculture

A newly opened field this year in Lebanon High School is the Vocational Agriculture Department. This is a practical study of all phases of Agriculture.

Guidance

Valuable assistance is offered by the Guidance and testing department for the selecting of careers. These tests are given to Freshmen and Seniors for help in selecting a plane of study and a vocation.

Art Department

Paintings on the windows around Christmas time are done by the Art Department as a part of their work during the year. These artists work with water colors, oil paints, leather and metal.

Instrumental Music Department

Harmonious notes can be heard from under the gym as the Senior Band practices for a ball game or a program. Mr. Lester DeBard, director, is their most valuable critic.

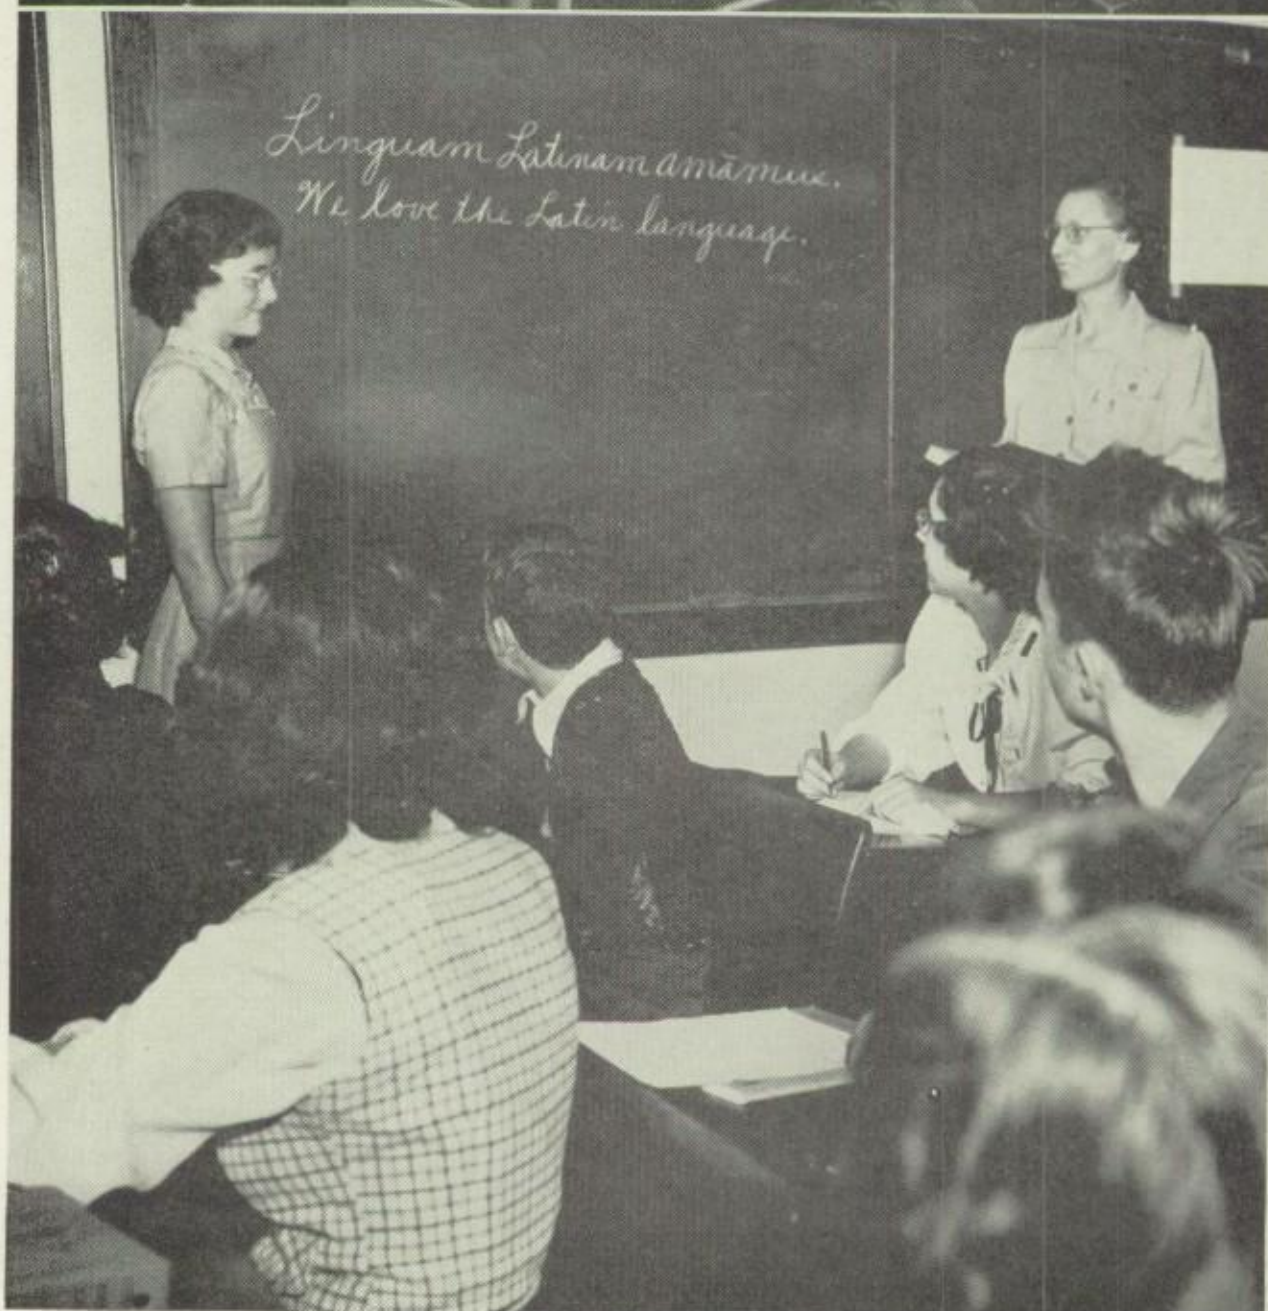

Spanish Department

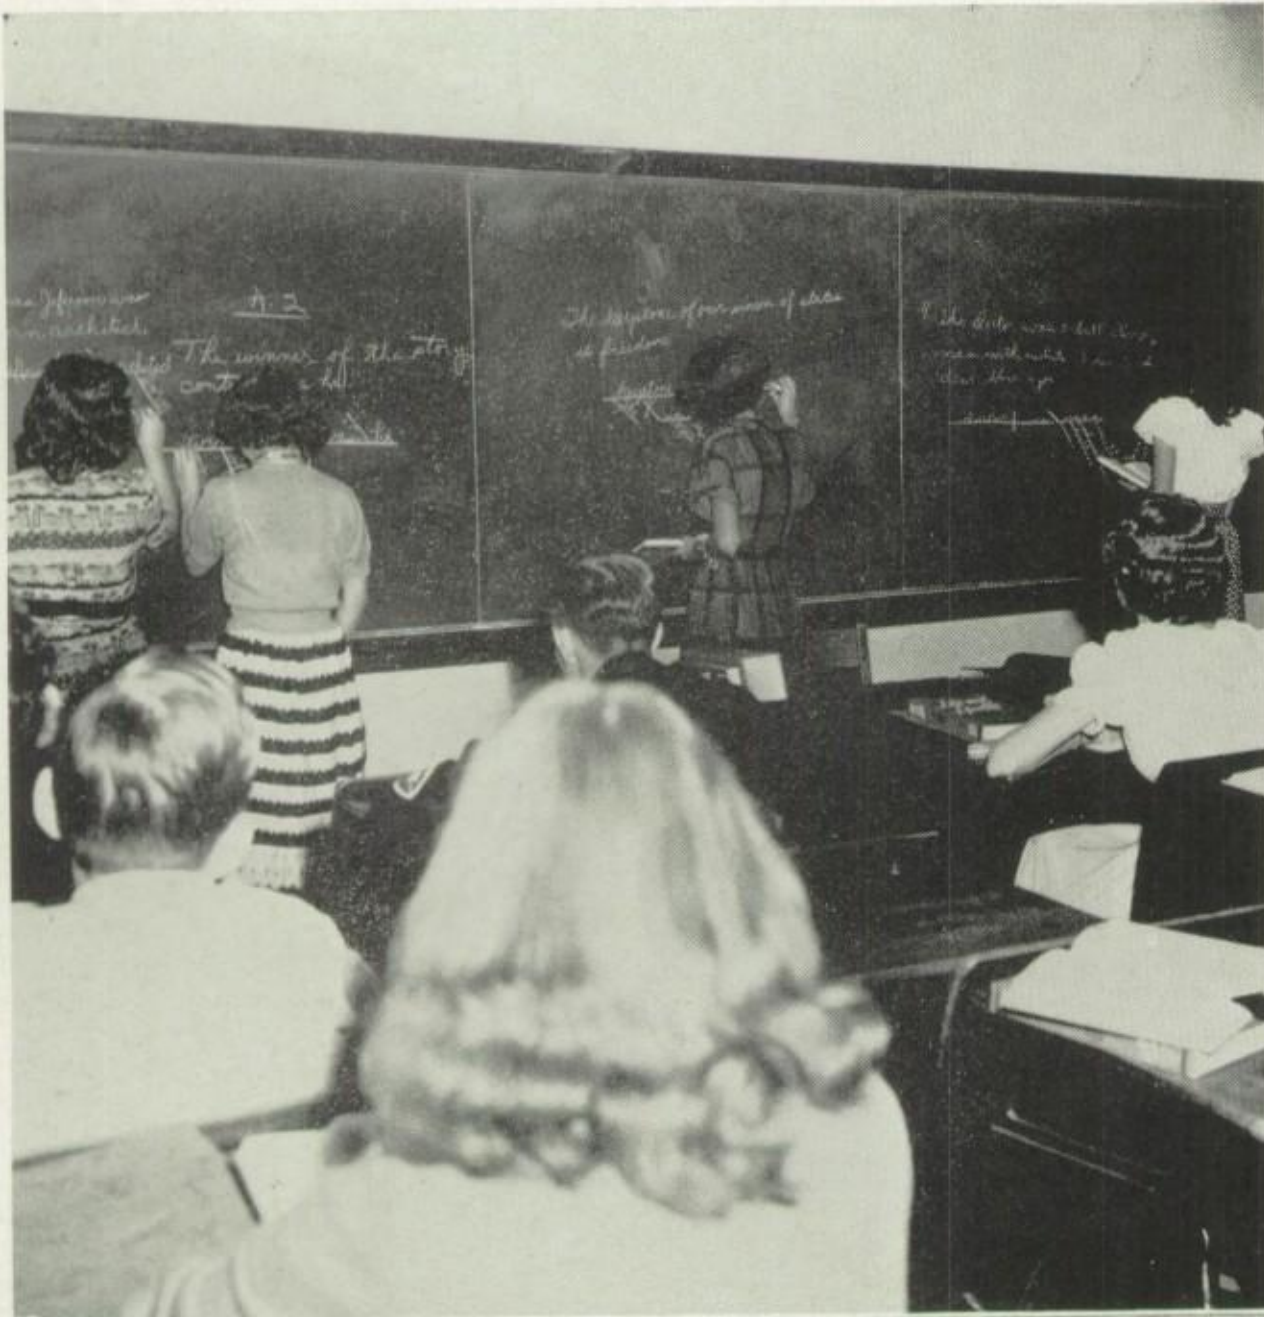

Preparing for travel to our southern neighboring countries are these Spanish students. They learn the language, study the customs of the Spanish speaking people and read about their dress and homes.

Latin Department

Latin may be a dead language to some people, but not to these enterprising Latin I students who make Mrs. Sumpter's class quite lively with the old Roman language.

English Department

What is a participle? Just ask any student of this English department where not only sentence construction is studied but our every day conversation is smoothed out.

Speech Department

Gestures are important in expressing yourself in a speech. They must also be prepared just like the material in a speech. Mrs. Jane Ward coaches these fluently speaking orators. Here you learn pronunciation, enunciating, and articulation.

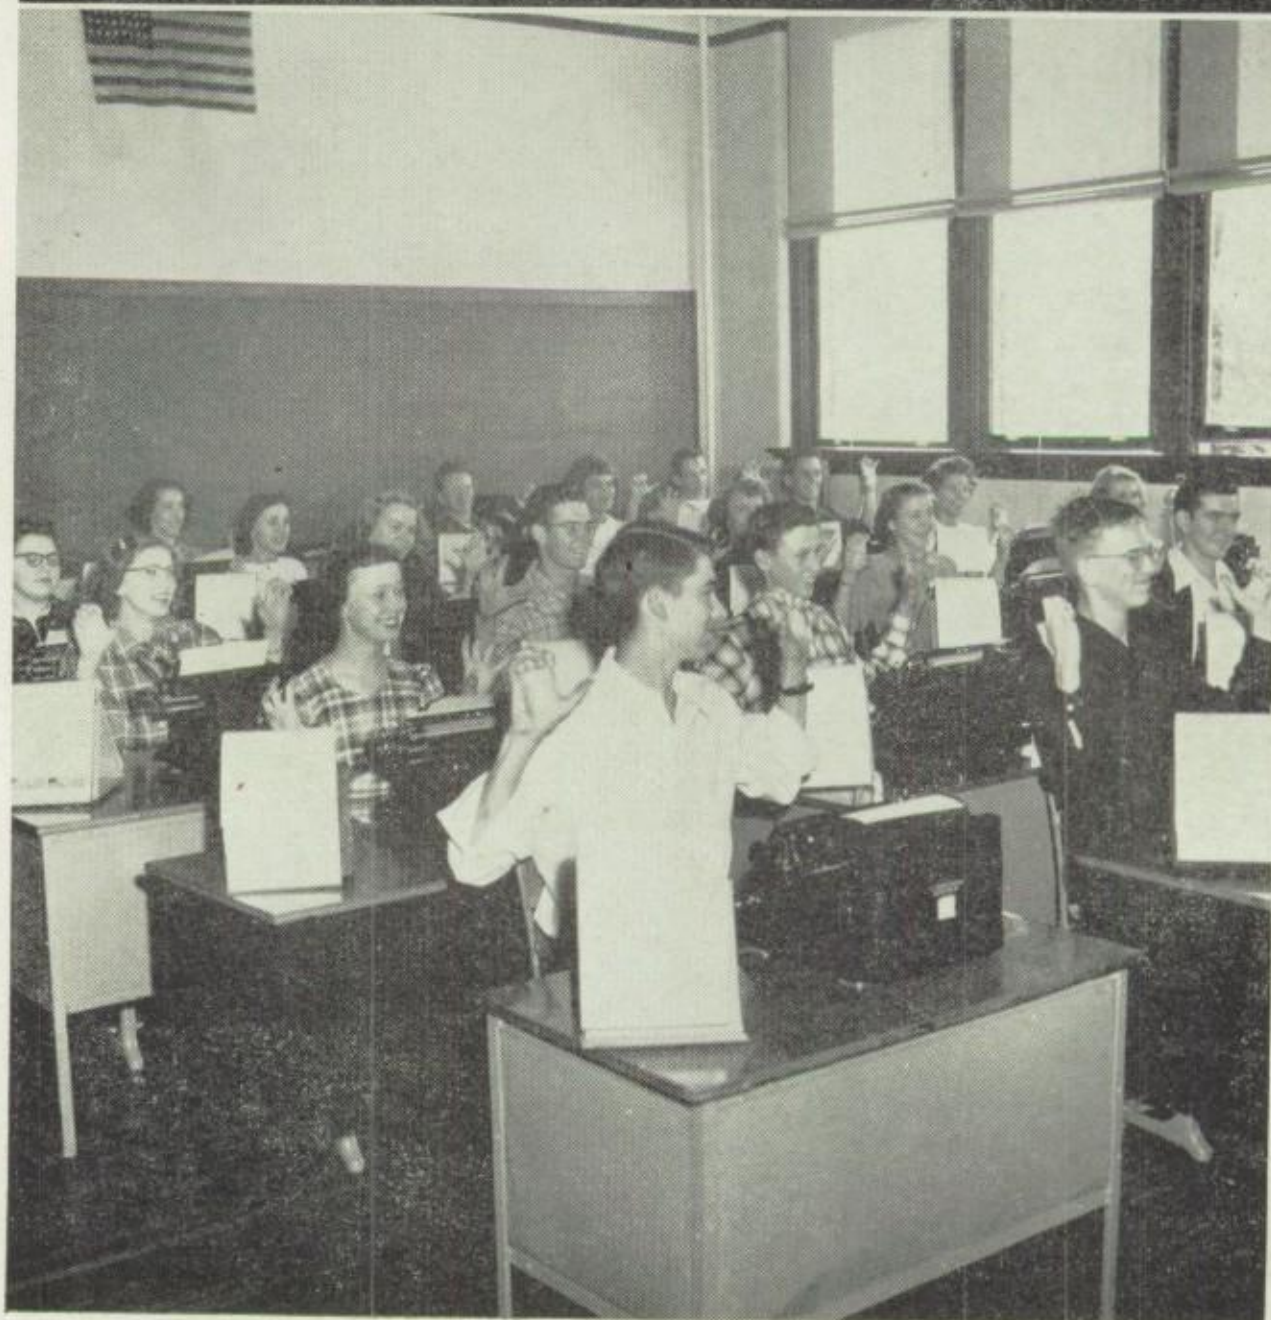

Social Studies Department

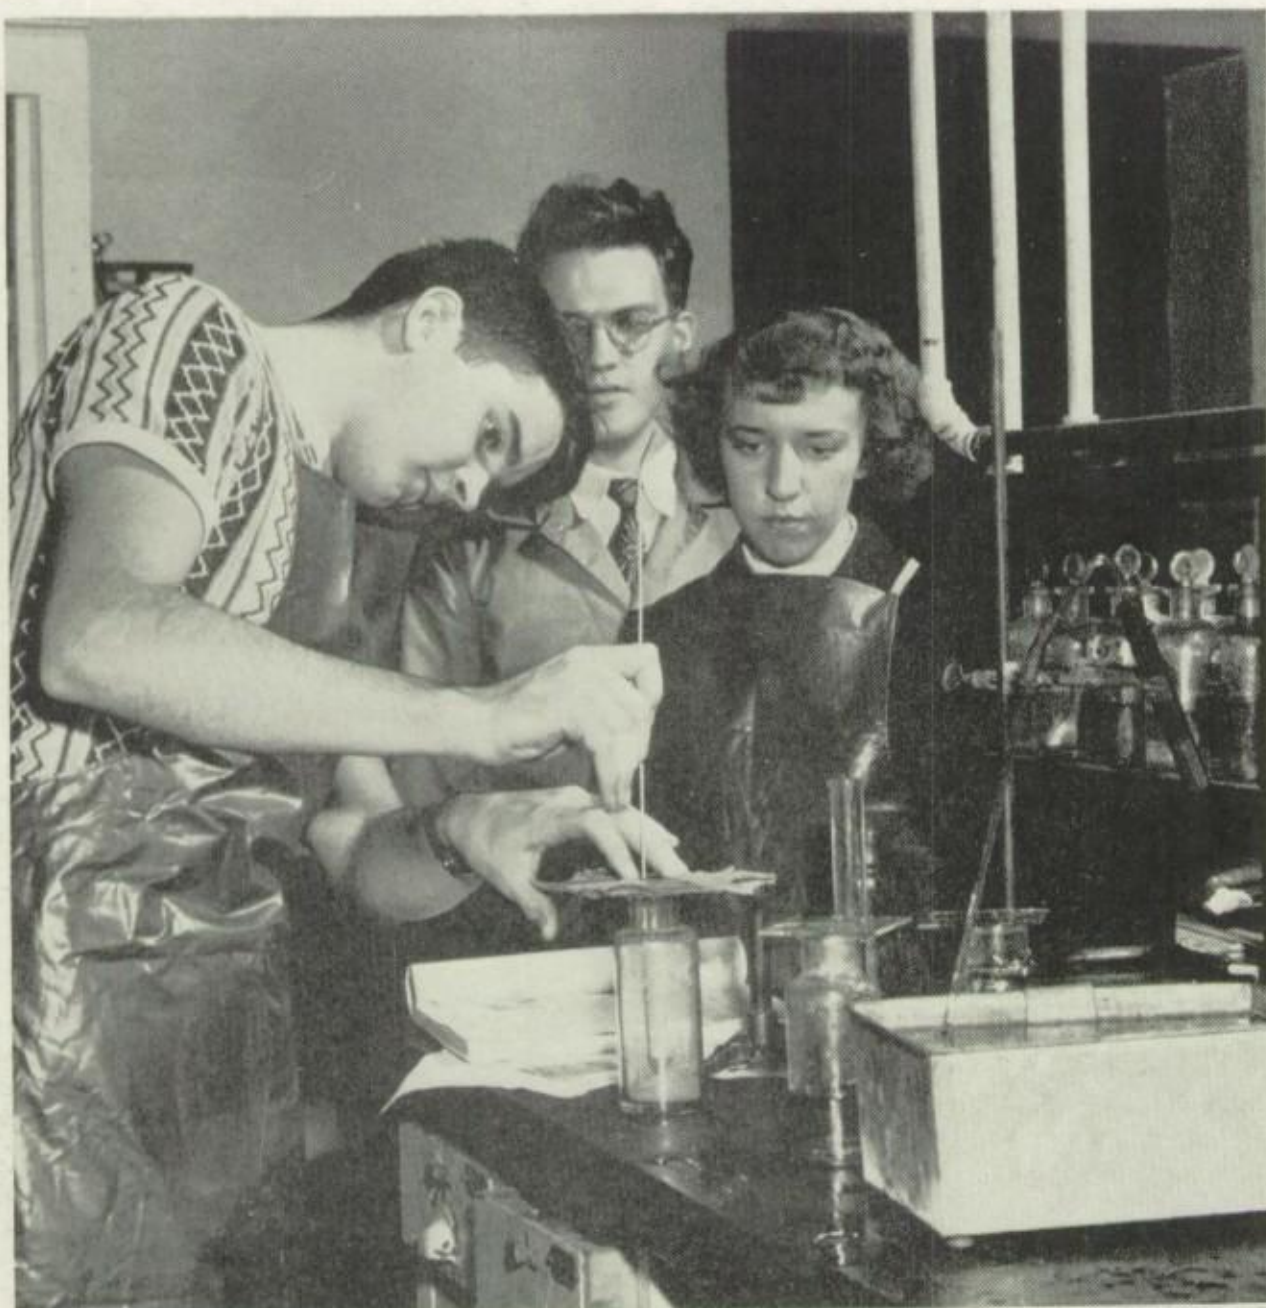

Class panels are frequent in the studying schedule of Mr. Neeves. Besides the required history Lebanon High School offers the study of Social Problems and Economics.

Commercial Department

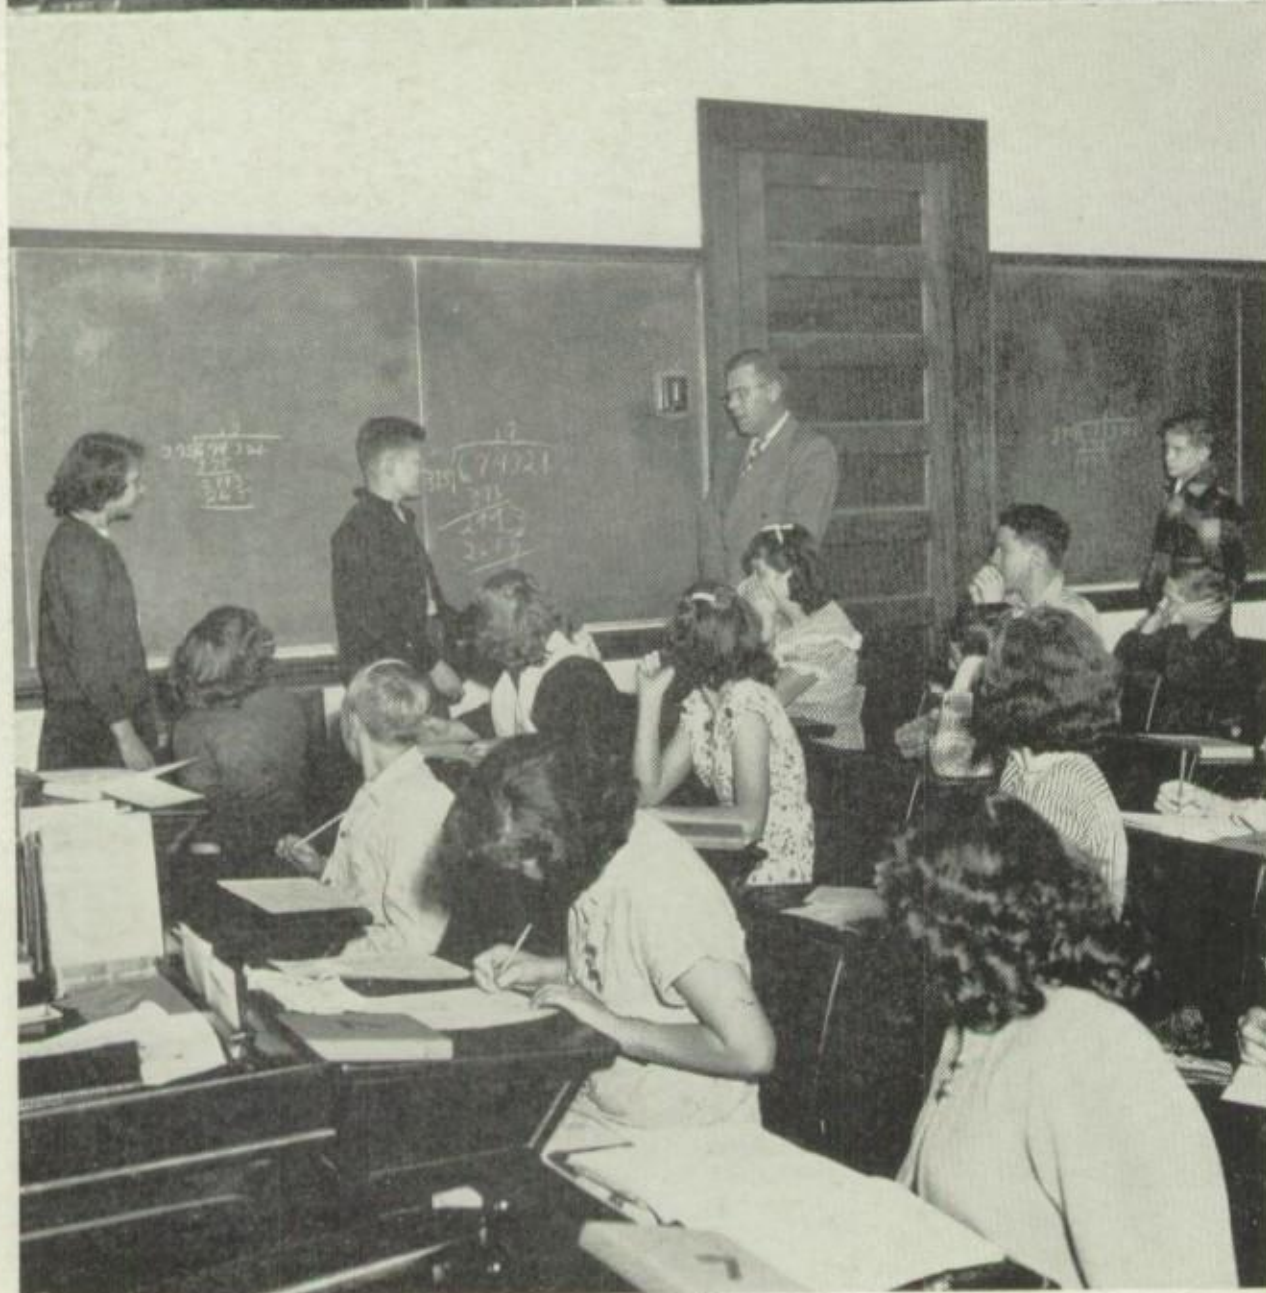

What have we here? Just a little finger exercises before 55 minutes of strenuous typing. Other courses in the Commercial department are Shorthand, Bookkeeping, Secretarial Training, Salesmanship, and General Business.

Science Department

Mix a dash of this and a pinch of that and hope it doesn't blow up. No, this isn't the usual procedure of the Science department. Here they learn first what can be combined and then combine it for scientific tests.

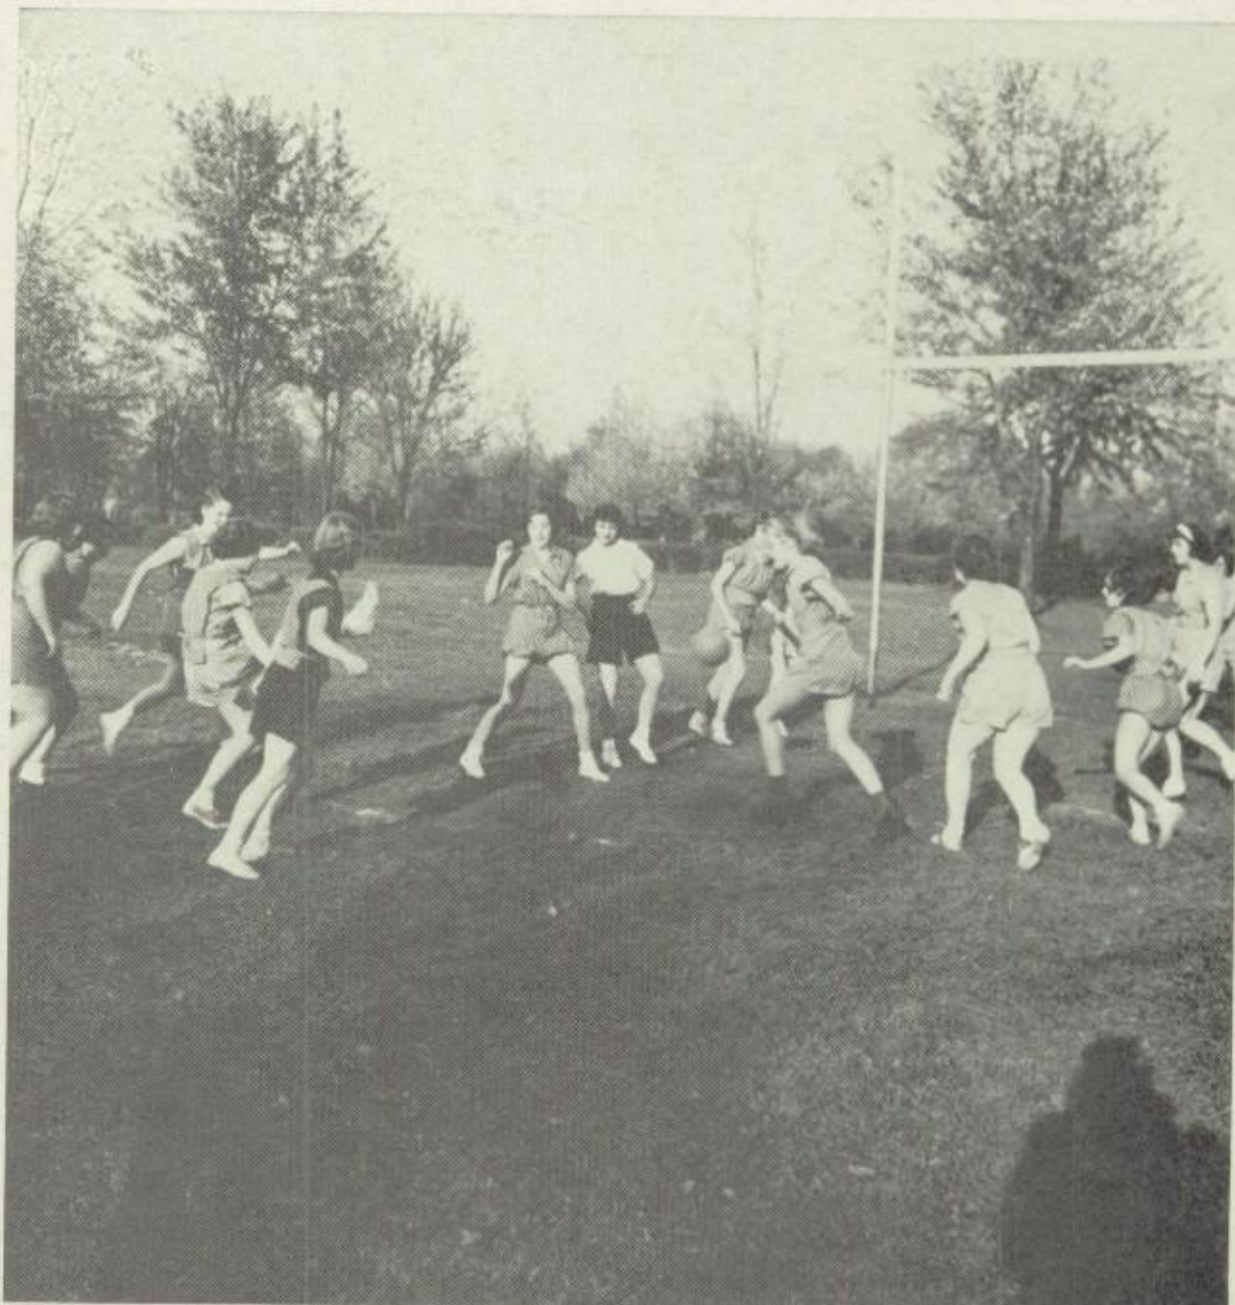

Mathematics Department

Mr. Jewell Kincaid questions one of his mathematicians who is studying General Mathematics. Other courses offered are Algebra, Plane Geometry, Advanced Algebra, Solid Geometry, Trigonometry and Senior Mathematics.

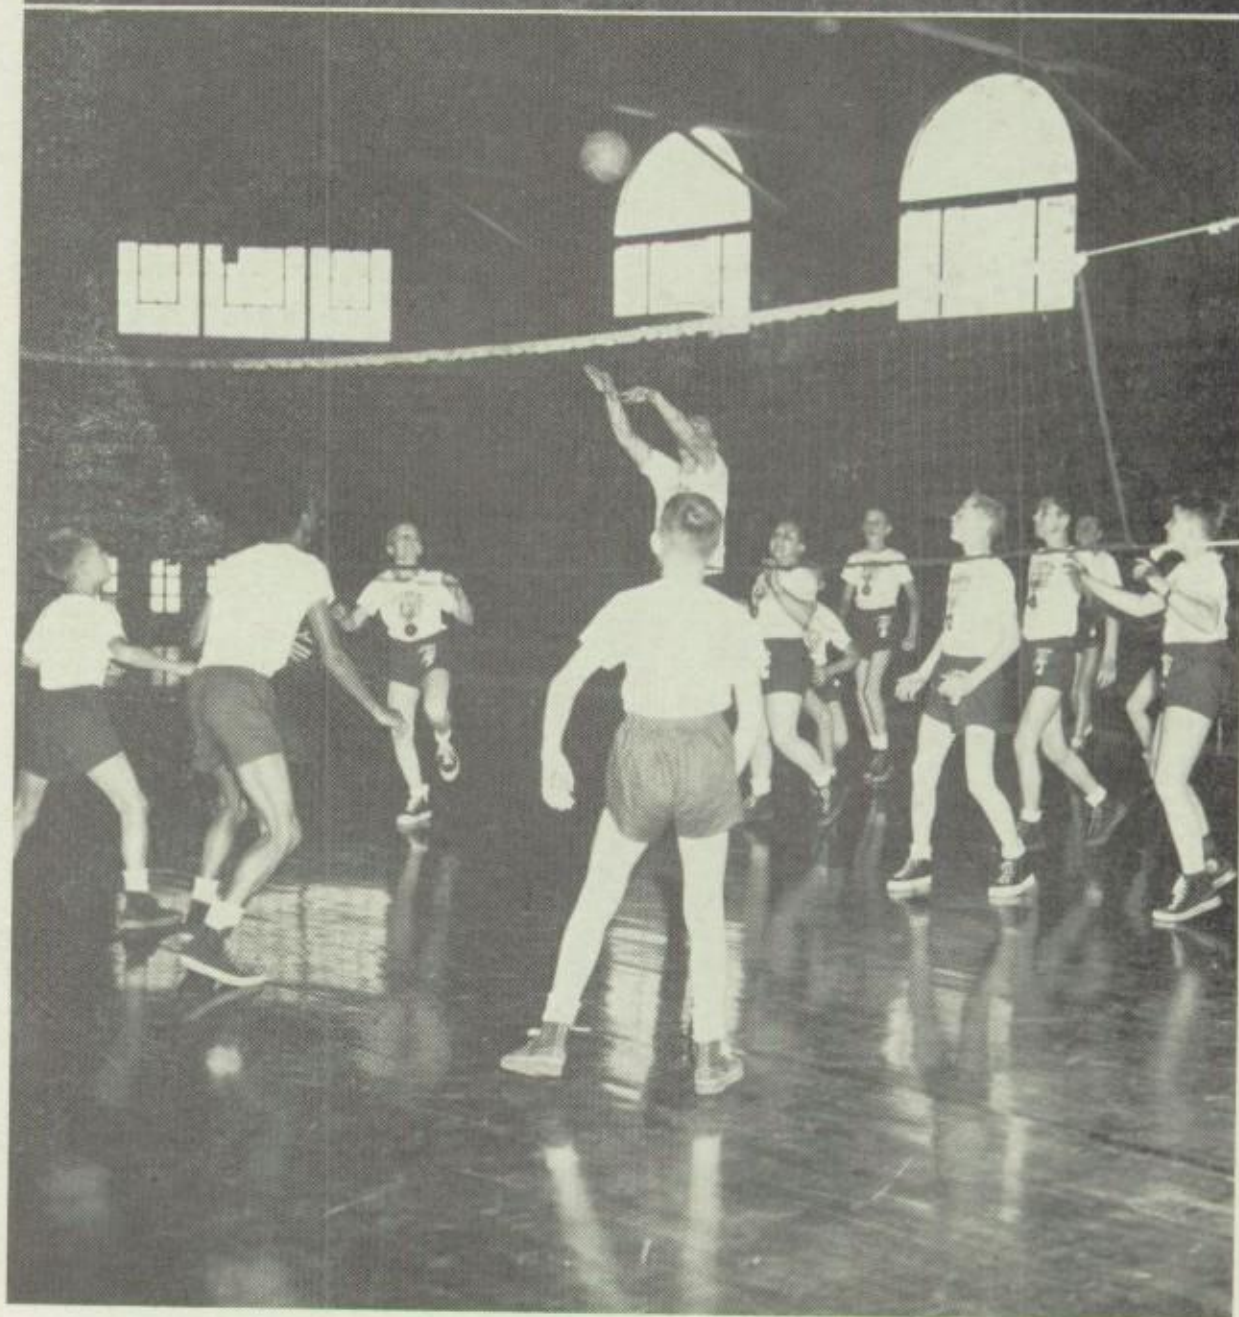

Girls' Physical Education

For healthier American girls Lebanon gives us the Physical Education classes. Newcomb was a game newly introduced to the girls this year by Miss Leyman. Other favorite sports were soccer, volleyball, basketball, and softball.

Boys' Physical Education

The boys in this physical education class are building strong bodies and enjoying themselves at the same time. The boys do calisthenics and participate in several sports in proper seasons. The desire to excel in the physical education program was high this year as teams were formed in each class and competition was keen throughout the year regardless of the sports activity under way.

Looking Back

Custodians

Mr. Alva Hudson, Mr. William Watson, and Mr. William Hudson.

Memory Snaps

Remember when??? Although the pictures on the opposite page are not part of school they are either members of the student body a few years ago or students enjoying their vacation time. Do you recognize the three seniors in the upper left-hand corner, or the national contest winner in the upper right-hand corner? During the summer a large percentage of LHS students spent most of their time at the pool or loafing around uptown. Vacations during school gave time for parties, more loafing and slumber parties.

Coming back to school memories, the three men on this page will never be forgotten for they are our custodians and friends of long standing, Alva, "Slim", and Bill.

Characterizations!

My Activities . . .

On the following pages are our honor winners, honorary organizations, and departmental clubs. All of these add to the making of citizens out of LHS students besides giving them opportunities to take initiative and the assumption of responsibilities. You can plainly see from the size of the clubs that LHS students like to "belong", that organizations are important in our school society.

Below are the five members of the graduating class who attended Hoosier Boys' and Girls' State. They were selected by their classmates and faculty on the basis of interest in government, moral character and scholarship. Reading from left to right: Marcia Miller, Bob Shanks, Mary F. McKenzie, Bob Warren, and Faedetta Maple.

"I Speak for Democracy..."

National winner Bob Shanks and Speech Director Mrs. Jane Ward read the good news received by Bob announcing him as one of four equal winners in the national Voice of Democracy contest.

Below on this page you will see a reproduction of the telegram sent to Bob from Washington, D. C. Our heartiest congratulations to you, Bob.

ROBERT SHANKS OF YOUR SCHOOL SENIOR CLASS HAS BEEN CHOSEN BY NINE EMINENT JUDGES AS ONE OF FOUR EQUAL NATIONAL WINNERS OF THE THIRD ANNUAL VOICE OF DEMOCRACY CONTEST OUR CONGRATULATIONS TO HIM AND TO YOU AND YOUR FACULTY. OFFICIAL LETTER OF NOTIFICATION WILL FOLLOW FROM OUR COMMITTEE CHAIRMAN TO ROBERT SHANKS. WE ARE LOOKING FORWARD TO HAVING HIM WITH US IN WASHINGTON=
JAMES DAWSON FOR THE VOICE OF DEMOCRACY COMMITTEE=

Voice of Democracy Winner

Robert Shanks, Lebanon High School representative in the Voice of Democracy contest sponsored by the National Association of Broadcasters, the Junior Chamber of Commerce, and the Radio Manufacturers Association, was chosen one of the four equal National winners. Bob won from over one million contestants throughout the nation with his five-minute radio script on Democracy. In his script Bob portrayed Richard Brown, a dead war veteran who returned to tell what democracy had meant to him. As a result of this winning script Bob received a $500 scholarship and a trip to Washington where he met President Truman, cabinet officers, members of Congress, and other high ranking officials.

Prior to this contest Bob had won many other speech contests. Among them were the American Legion District Contest, the Central Indiana Oratorical Contest, the Lebanon Inter-Class Oratorical Contest, and the State Rotary Contest.

Lebanon High School is very proud of Bob and his achievements. Once again, may we extend our sincere congratulation to you, Bob Shanks.

D.A.R. Winner

D.A.R. Good Citizen

Marcia Miller was receiver of the D.A.R. Good Citizenship award for this year. She was chosen from a list of Senior girls by faculty vote. The local contest was sponsored by the James Hill Chapter of the D.A.R.

Candelabrum Committee

Each time the Senior class assembled during our last year, we were reminded, by the Candelabrum Committee, of the principles included in a high school education. Members of the candelabrum are Tom Honan, Charlotte Korteling, Richard Nichols, Mary Frances McKenzie, Robert Shanks, Faedetta Maple, Gerald French, and Marcia Miller.

Candelabrum Committee

Senior National Honor Society

Only those with high scholastic standards and dependable participation in school activities receive membership into the National Honor Society of Lebanon High School. The members are left to right: Robert Warren, President; Miss Witt, sponsor; Nellie Jean Brattain; Tom Hopkins; Marcia Miller, Secretary-Treasurer; and Gerald French, Vice President.

Junior National Honor Society

Cedars Staff

Through the combined efforts of the smallest staff in the history of Lebanon High School and its sponsor, we bring you the 1950 Cedars.

Brains behind the work to publish the Cedars were furnished by the two staff heads Robert Shanks and Tom Hopkins, and our sponsor, Mr. Guilford.

Pennant Staff

Organized as an extra curricular activity the Pennant was successfully published bi-weekly by these ambitious staff workers.

Co-Editors and Business Manager of the Pennant are Beverly Cooper and Robert Warren, and Jack Stookey. Mr. James Baugher sponsored the paper.

Boosters Club

Helpful hands around the school are these members of the Boosters Club. Under the sponsorship of Mr. Heath these boys assist in any way possible to make school activities run smoothly. Five boys are selected during their sophomore year by the faculty to become members of the Boosters Club after retiring members submit a list of ten names to the faculty.

Officers for the year were Bob Shanks, President; and Tom Honan, Secretary.

Other active members were Gerald French, Robert Warren, Edwin Byrd, Tom Tanselle, Clifford Antcliff, Wayne Sipe, and David Richey.

School Boosters

Choral Reading Group

The Riley Centennial was observed with a program given by the Dramatics Department choral reading group under the direction of Mrs. Jane Ward.

Eighteen of this group were later initiated into the National Thespian Society which was inactive the first of the year because its membership consisted of only Robert Shanks, President and Mary Frances McKenzie, Vice President. Together the twenty-one members including Joyce Thatcher not pictured strived to carry out the Thespian motto "Act well your part; there all the honor lies."

Student Operators

The idea of "education through visual aid" is the work of this group. They have successfully turned the idea into realism for almost all classes at school. Officers for the year were Gerald French, President, and Don Bowers, Secretary.

Candy-Coke Committee

The financial condition of the Junior class lies in the hands of these refreshment "peddlers." Sore feet for this group means more money for the Prom and other events, to the rest of the Junior Class.

Sunshine Council

The 40th anniversary celebration of the Senior Sunshine Society in Lebanon High School was the main event for the sunshiners besides their every day effort to carry out their motto "Others."

Heading the Sunshine Society are Mary Frances McKenzie, President; Patricia Murphy, Vice President; Shirley McGrigg, Secretary; and Faedetta Maple, Treasurer. Sponsors for the year were Mrs. Sumpter, Miss Tauer, Miss Beckett, and Miss O'Day.

Sunbeam Council

Rays of helpfulness were spread by the Junior Sunbeams under the guidance of Mrs. Bowman, Mrs. Hallagan and Miss LeVier.

Sunbeam officers were Jeanette Quellhorst, President; Anita King, Vice President; and Jane McDonald, Secretary.

Commercial Club

Future office workers are these members of the Commercial Club. Under the direction of Mr. Baugher the club elected Jane Reinke, President; Faedetta Maple, Vice President; Marilyn Walker, Treasurer; and Robert Shanks, Secretary.

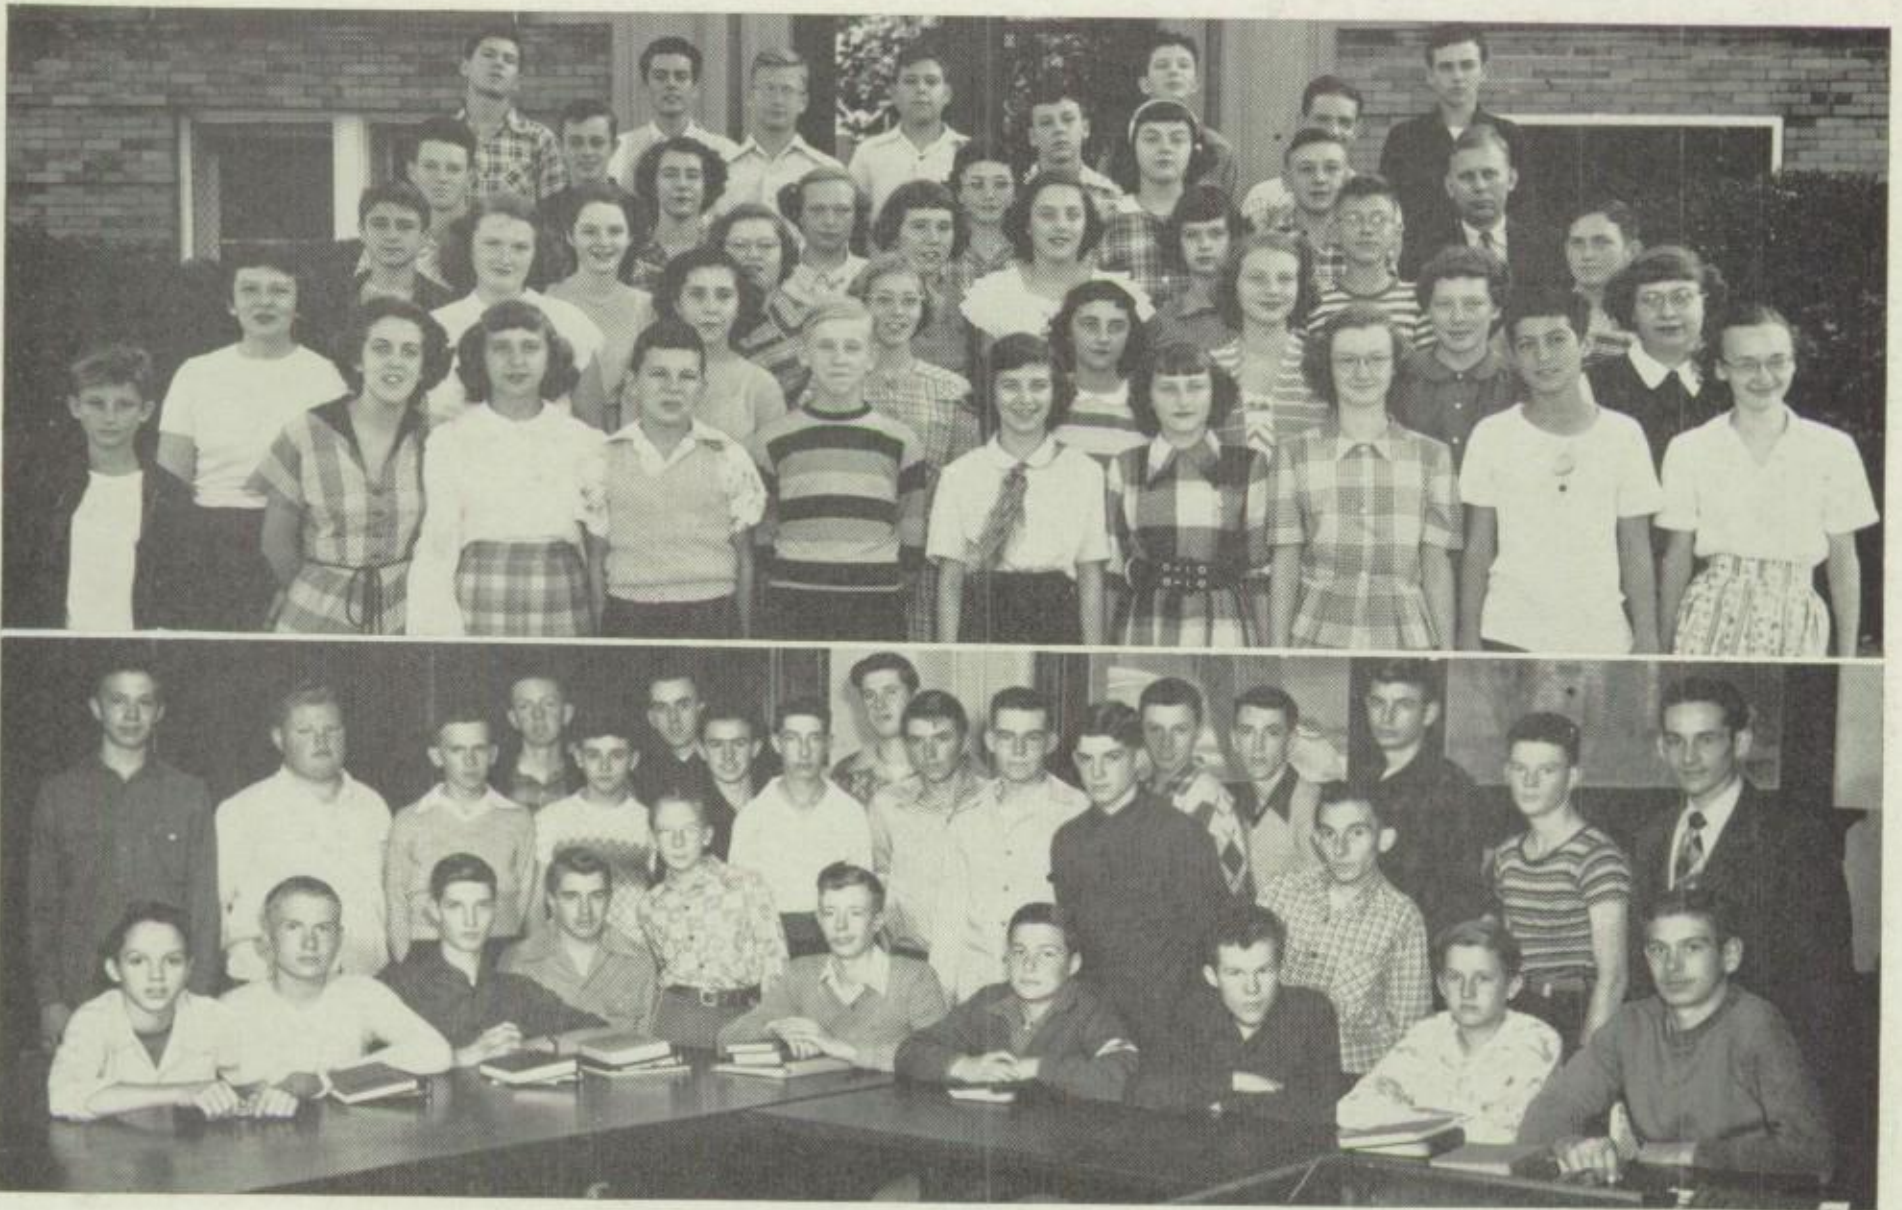

Hi-Y

Clean Speech, Clean Sports, and Clean Living are the practices of the Hi-Y members. Mr. Neeves and Mr. Maple co-sponsored the club and officers for the year were Tom Honan, President; Gerald French, Vice-President; Robert Shanks, Secretary; Robert Warren, Treasurer; Richard Nichols, Chaplain; John Yates, Sergeant-At-Arms.

Junior Science Club

Greater things through scientific research. Take a good look at this group. Some day one of them may become a famous scientist.

Scientific minded officers were Robert Shanks, President; Richard Nichols, Vice President; Tom Honan, Secretary.

Future Farmers of America

Newly organized is this group of Future Farmers of America. Better things for the farm is one of their chief aims. Our new Vocational Agriculture teacher, Mr. Petersen, sponsored the group. Presiding farmers are Robert Thrine, President; Robert Hysong, Vice-President; Donald Gillihan, Treasurer; Carl Schenk, Secretary.

Future Homemakers of America

Future Homemakers of America! One of the year's main events was the Central District meeting held here at Lebanon in October. Homemaker officers are Dorothy Thompson, President; Wanda James, Vice-President; Martha Heath, Secretary-Treasurer.

Junior Future Homemakers of America

A new organization is the Junior Future Homemakers of America. It is comprised of girls from the seventh and eighth grade who are in home economic classes. This is a picture of the officers of the four divisions of the club. Willa Small, Jane McDonald, Janet Spurr, and Jane Wiseheart are the four presidents.

Latin Club

A little bit of old Rome is brought to Lebanon by the members of the Latin Club through their activities carried out in Roman customs.

Mrs. Sumpter sponsors the Romans and chief Romans were 1st Consul, Glen Hootman; 2nd Consul, Peggy Lindley; Quaester, Marilyn Lee; Aedile, Shirley McGrigg.

Spanish Club

The "La Alianza Hispanica's" big doings of the year was a fiesta celebration in the spring. Senor Boggy kept tab on the group while officiating members were Jim Parr, President; Mick Heflin, Vice President; Beverly Mullin, Secretary-Treasurer; and Mary Winkler, Program Chairman.

Library Club

A fall trip was made to the Indiana State Library by this group under the guidance of Miss McLaughlin. Officers were Rose Lambert, President; Suzanne Lenox, Vice President; Joyce Thatcher, Secretary; and Patricia McKinney, Treasurer.

Library Assistants

Need reference books to work your lessons? Want a good book to read? Call on any of these Library Assistants for help in finding good material. To serve you is their purpose both in the Senior High and in the Junior High.

Senior Office Assistants

Keeping you informed on daily announcements and absences are only two of the many duties of these ambitious office workers. They are assistants to the assistant's assistant. Whatever title they carry won't fully describe all the important jobs these girls accomplish.

Junior Office Assistants

The Junior High office assistants serve the Junior High faculty and students in the same way as the Senior High assistants do. These girls are under the helpful guidance of Mrs. Stephenson.

Twirlers

Twirlers are Mina Baker, Marilyn Emmert, Marilyn Walker, Donna Orwig, Janet Strohl and Allan Owens.

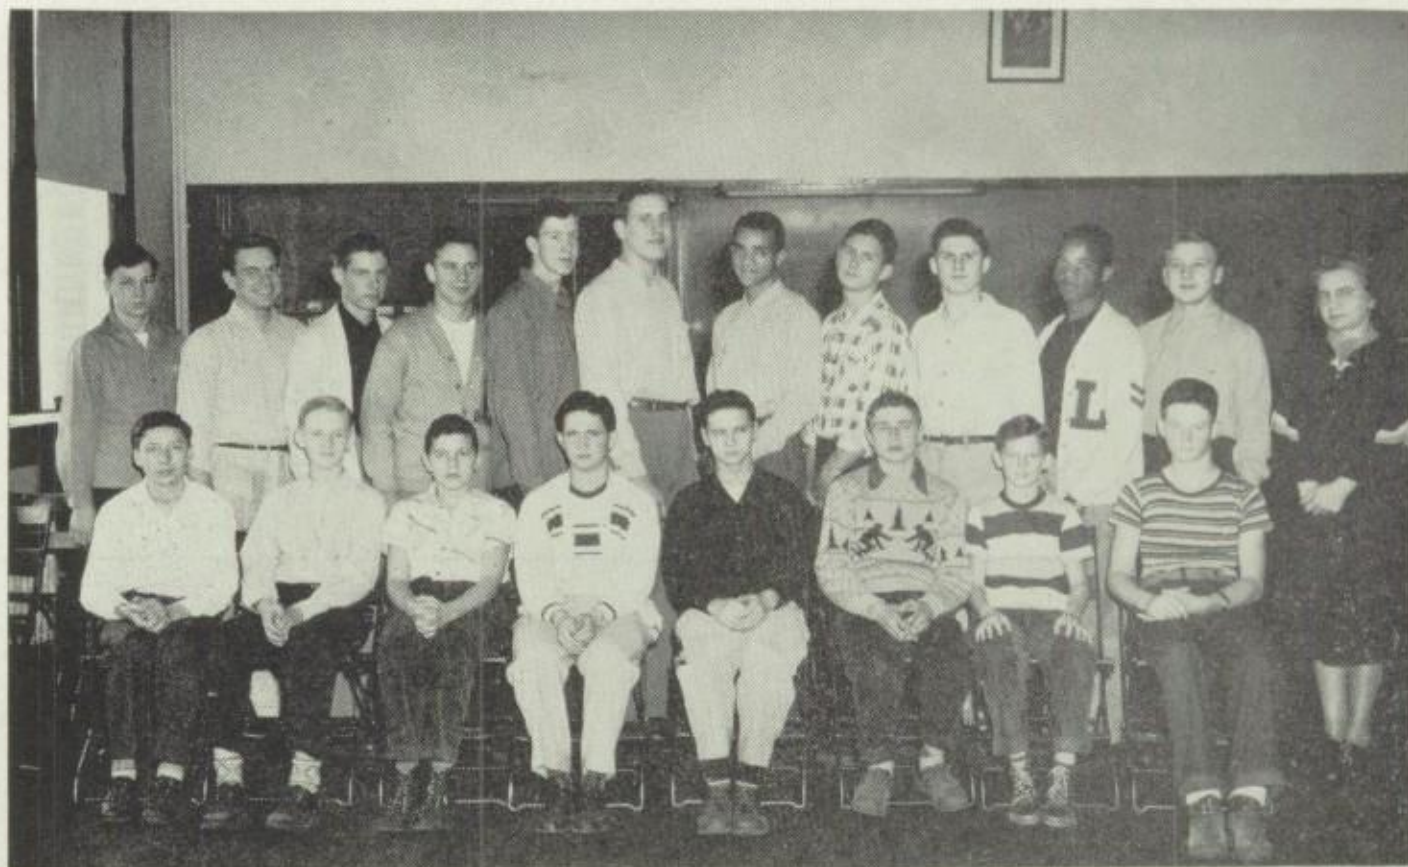

Band

A good representation of Lebanon High School spirit at all occasions can be heard in the music provided by the band at ball games, concerts, Honor's Day, and commencement.

Boy's Glee Club

Along with the Girl's Glee Club this group of boys provided excellent music for the Christmas Play and Vesper Service. The quality of the group makes up for the quantity.

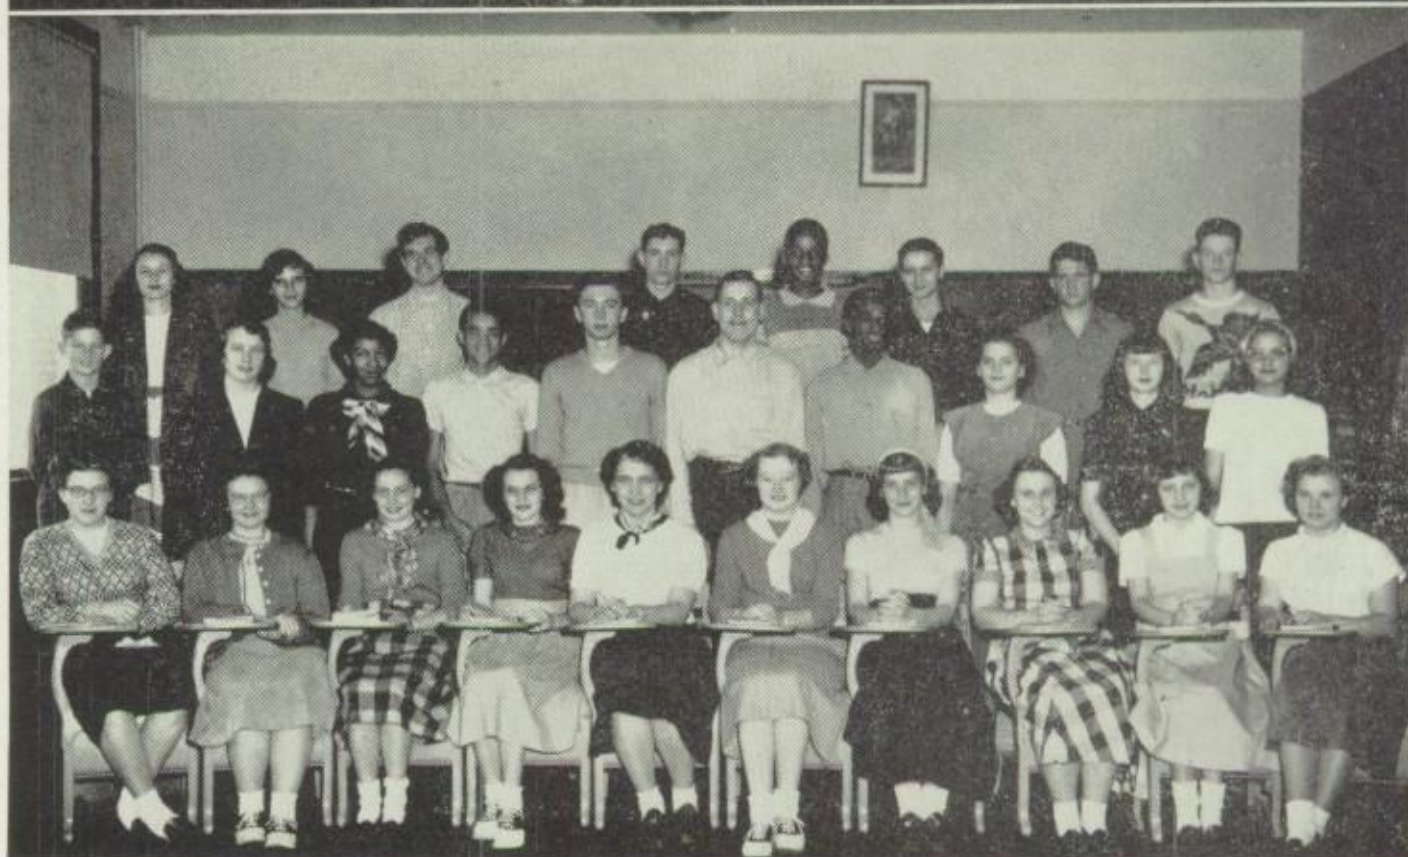

Girl's Glee Club

Activities of the Girl's Glee Club is the same as the Boy's Glee Club. Here you find quality and quantity.

Concert Choir

During the Christmas season the concert choir participated in several programs outside of school. This faithful group is called on frequently for short notice programs.

Junior Girl's Athletic Association

Newcomb, a new game to Lebanon High School, was introduced by Miss Leyman, Jr. G. A. A. sponsor. Jr. G. A. A. officers were Sue Dickerson, President; Jane McDonald, Vice President; Jane Wiseheart, Secretary; Ann Spurr, Treasurer. The group had one big event, a Playday in the Spring

Senior Girl's Athletic Association

The Senior G. A. A. girls were hostesses to a Soccer Playday in the fall and later to a Basketball Playday. Representatives of the G. A. A. attended a State camp in the Spring. Officers for the year were Phyllis Acton, President; Jeanette Quellhorst, Vice President; Twyla Small, Secretary; and Margaret Davis, Treasurer.

L-Club

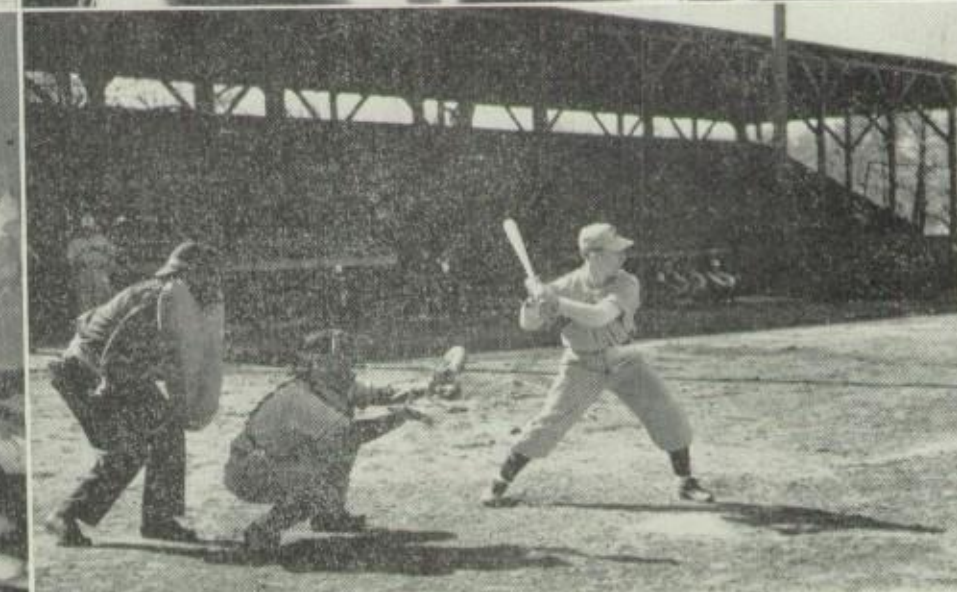

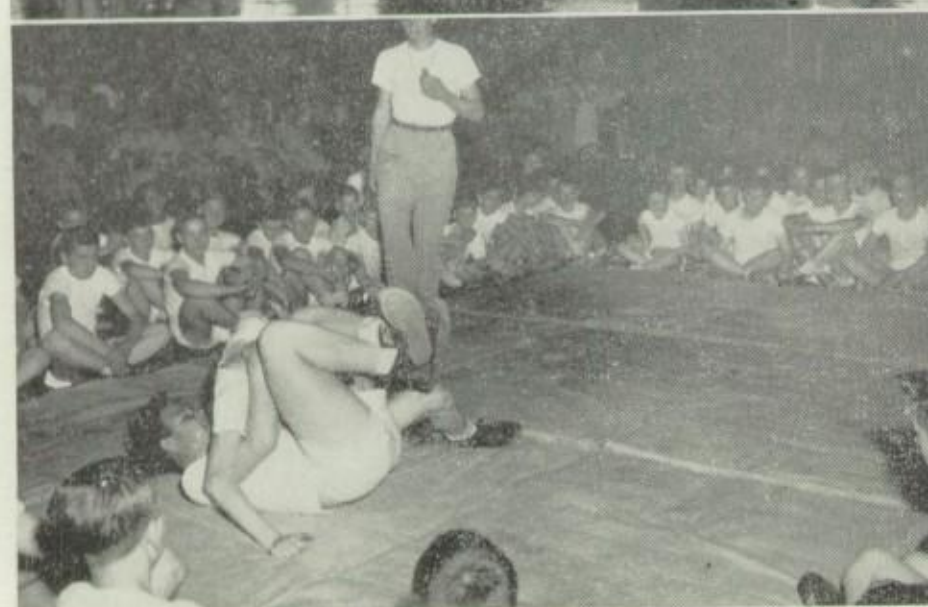

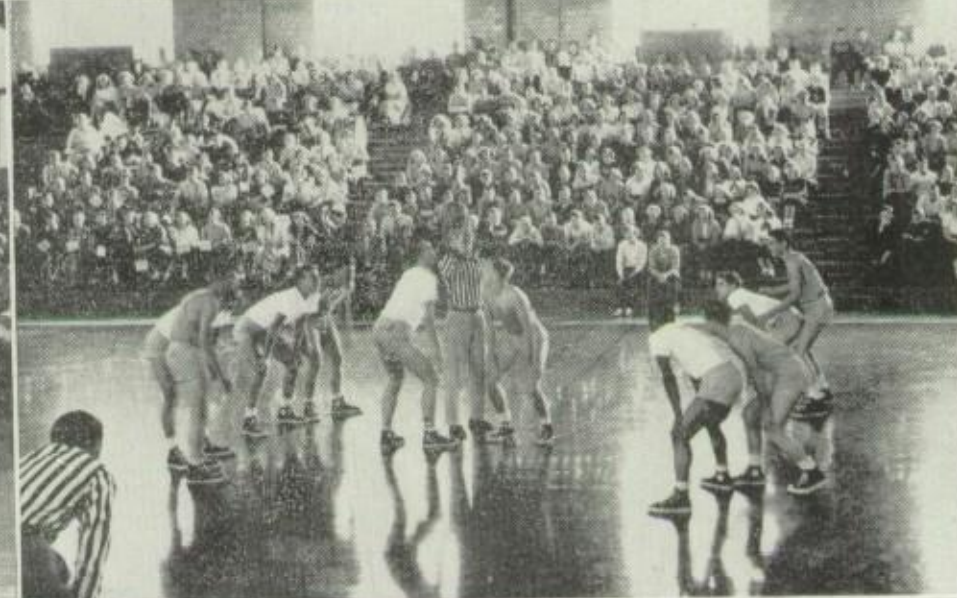

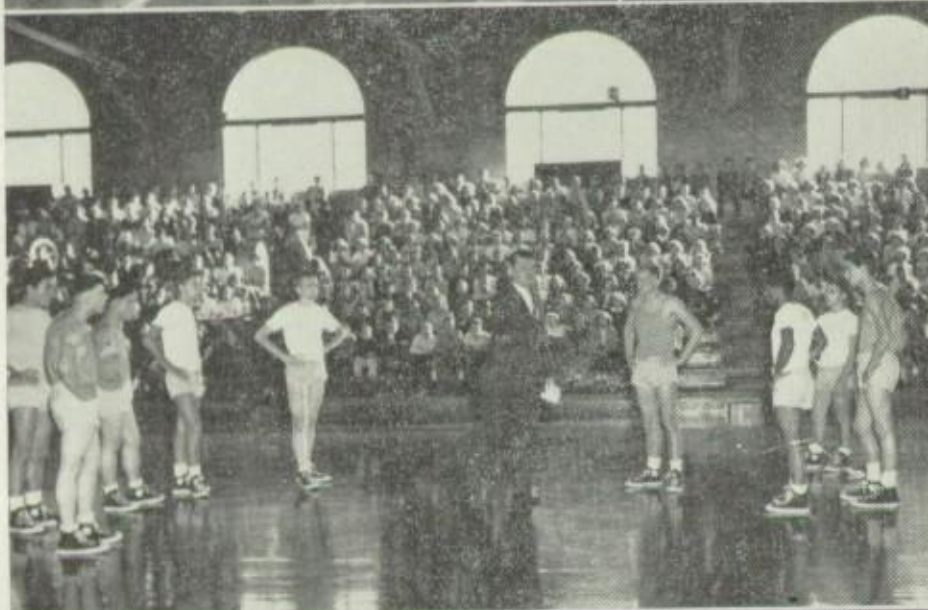

Active for the first time in several years, the L-Club is composed of letter winners in basketball, baseball, and track.

The L-Club painted the squad room with money made by the sale of L. H. S. socks.

Athletic officers were David Richey, President; Benny Campbell, Vice President; and Gerald French, Secretary-Treasurer. Mr. Witsman sponsored the group.

Athletes in Action

Our Sports at LHS . . .

The year 1950 should be a memorable year as far as the field of sports is concerned in Lebanon High School, for this year marks the return of football to our athletic program. A forgotten sport of the past since its discontinuance in 1933, football will round out a complete athletic program for the coming school year. Much of the credit for getting football returned to LHS goes to Athletic Director Forest G. Witsman. Definitely not to be overlooked are the earnest efforts of the administration, the school board of education, and the community. The 1950 football squad will be guided by Alvin Crawford, who will join the LHS faculty next fall.

The Tiger baseball team has a well-rounded fall and spring schedule; the thinly-clads are starting their fourth year of track; and the junior high athletic program has been greatly expanded by fall, winter and spring intra-mural and inter-school contests. From an athletic viewpoint, Lebanon High School is once again taking her place with other schools of comparable size.

Athletic Board of Control

Student representation in the field of athletics isn't confined merely to actual participation in sports of their respective choices. Below you see the student representatives and faculty members of the Athletic Board of Control. This board controls the prices of season basketball tickets, handles the awarding of honor letters, and promotes all branches of athletics in LHS. The board consists of a president, a vice-president, a secretary-treasurer, two boy representatives, two girl representatives and eight faculty members.

Junior High Cheer Leaders

These three energetic females had a busy job this season, with a Freshman - 7 - 8th Grade schedule which was larger than ever before. They were always on the job cheering the future Tigers onward. Ann Spurr, Jane Wiseheart, and Shirley Chaille compose the trio.

Managers

The six people pictured at the left represent the "workhorses" of the athletic department. They begin long before the games begin and are the last ones to leave after the games. Pictured kneeling are Dick Nichols, baseball; Bob Warren and Edie Byrd, senior and junior basketball managers; and Tom Hopkins, track.

Standing are Junior Allen, junior high manager; Dave McGhee, water-boy and Danny Hoffman, junior high manager.

Senior High Cheer Leaders

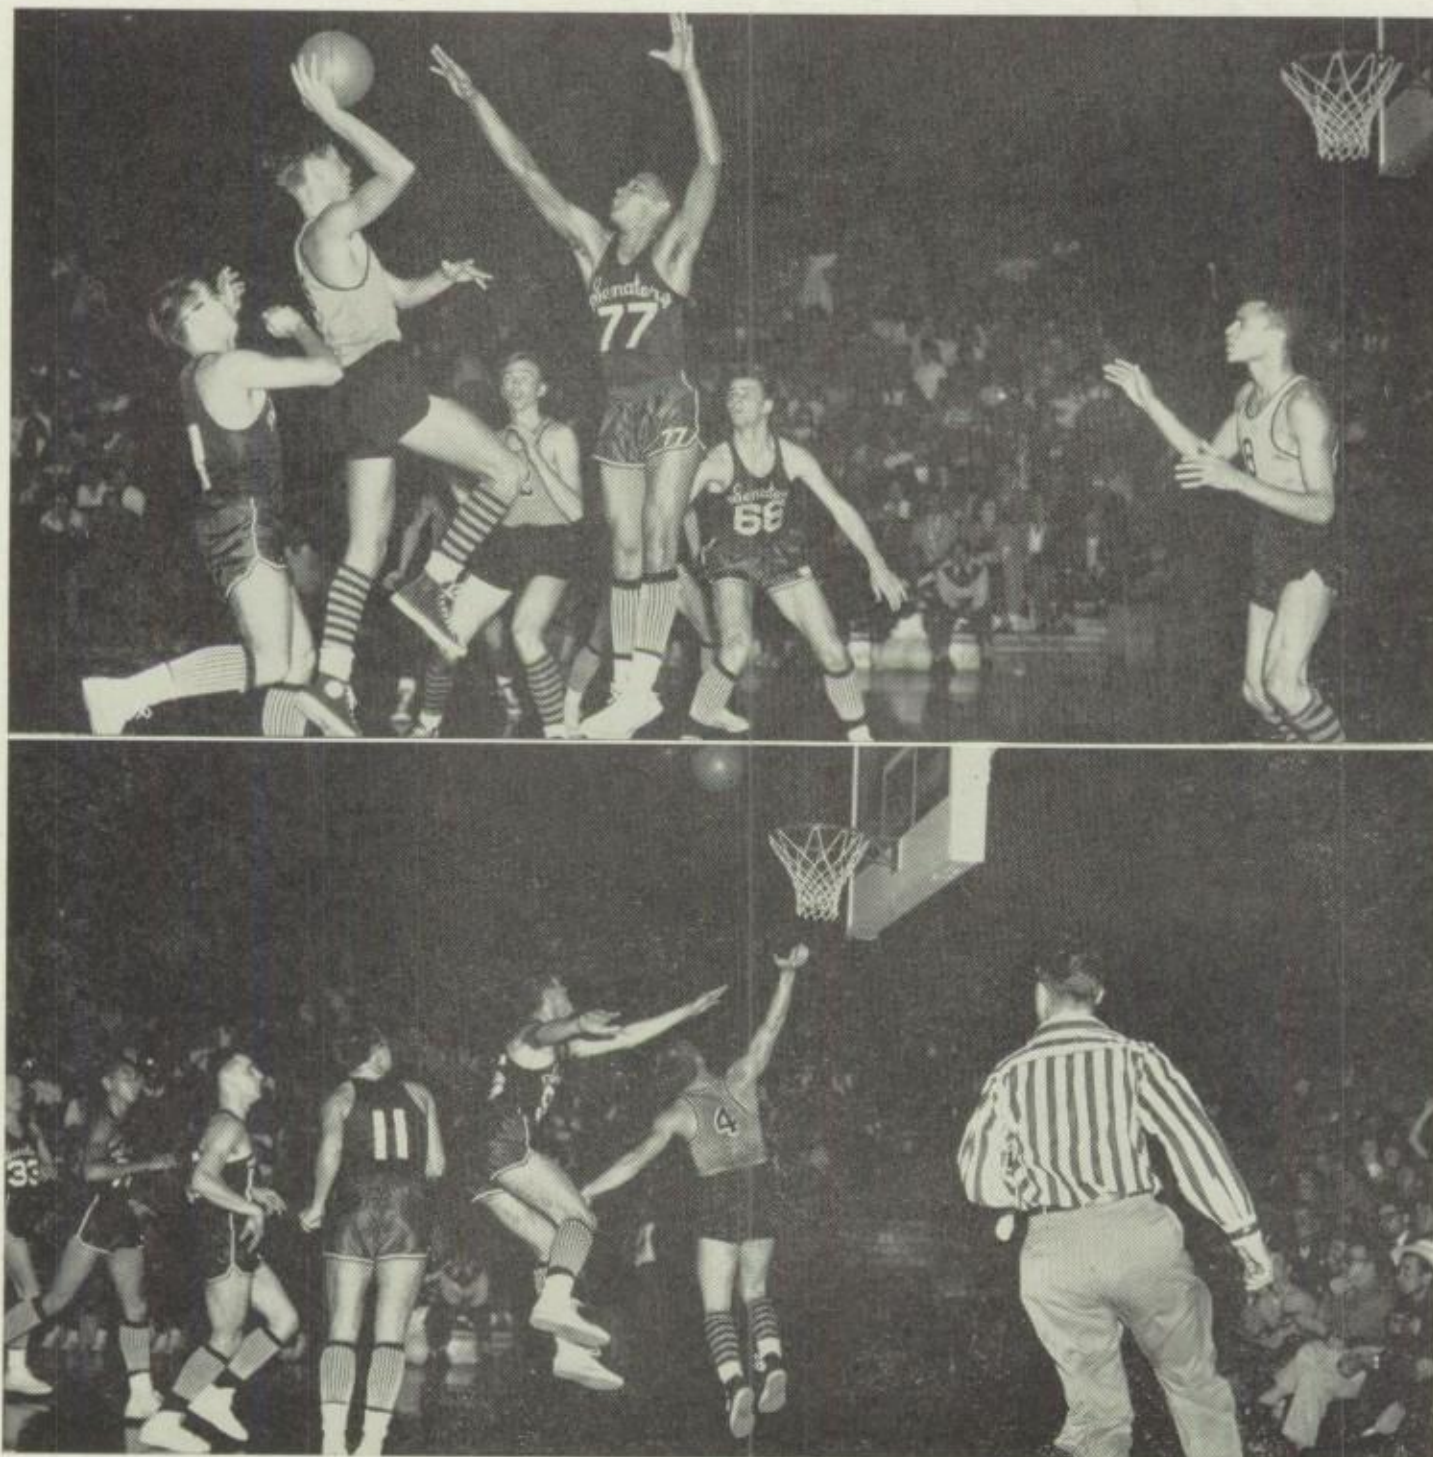

At no time during the year did you see Lebanon's cheering section or its sportsmanship lacking. This was due to the combined efforts of three of the most energetic, yet thoughtful, cheer leaders Lebanon has ever had, namely: Dick Nichols, Phyllis Acton, and Bob Amos.

About the Fighting Tigers . . .

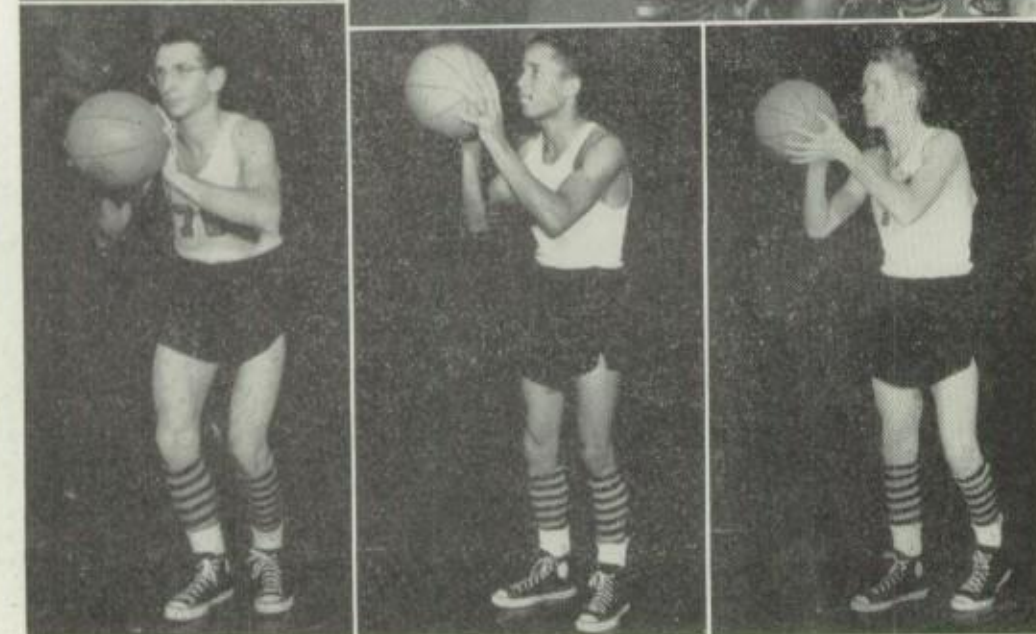

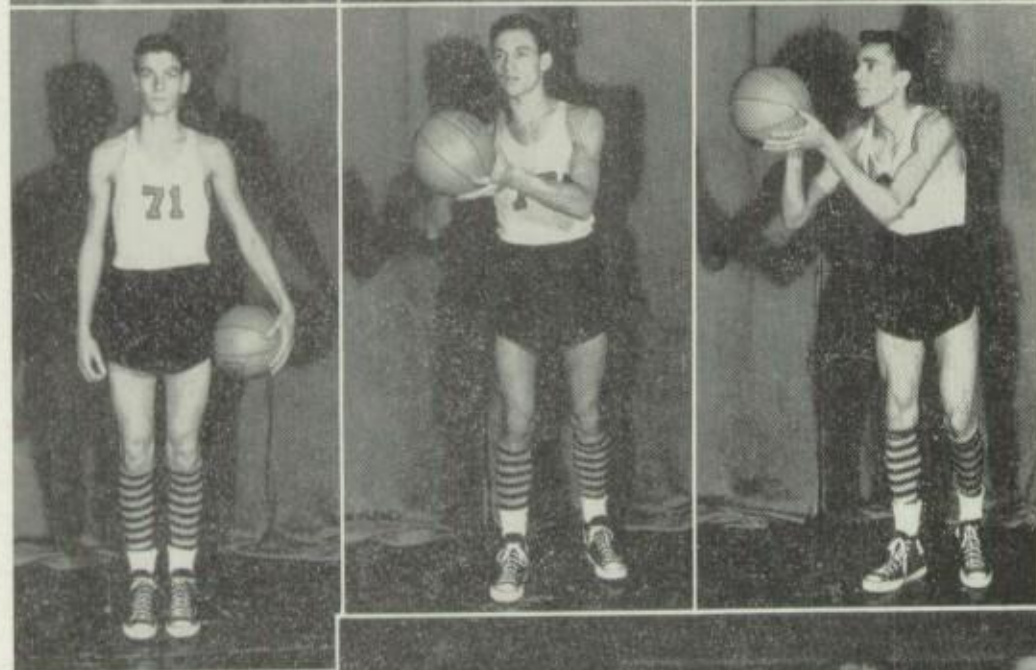

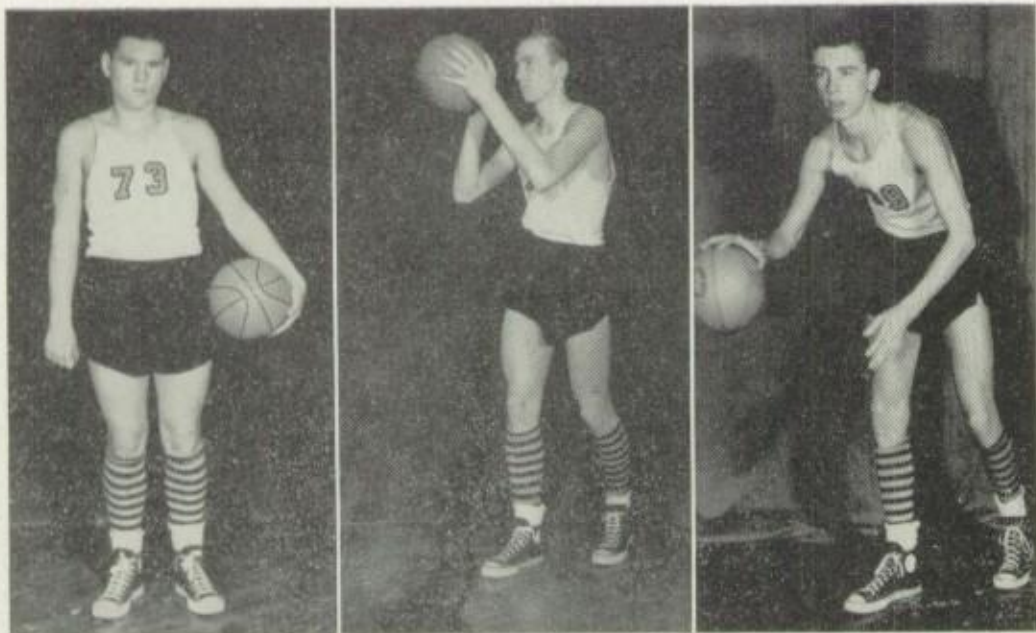

The fighting Tigers of 1949-50 gave high hopes of a very successful season with an impressive beginning of five straight wins. The Tigers, after subduing a stubborn Lapel five (minus any overtime which they have needed the past three years!) went on to rack up victories over Delphi, Lafayette Jeff, Crawfordsville, and Washington East Chicago, before being stopped by a red-hot Frankfort team. The last half of the year didn't prove as profitable, but they wound up the season on a high note by thumping a good Sheridan team (one of 1950's "Sweet Sixteen"), 52-42.

In sectional tourney play, Lebanon won their first game against Pinnell 58-28 and then lost their second try when they were defeated by Whitestown 52-43. Whitestown in turn lost the championship game to Zionsville by a score of 38-34, thus sending Zionsville to the regionals for the second consecutive year.

This year's scoring was fairly evenly divided as the following 22-game schedule and tournament statistics of the individual players show:

	Pos.	Class	Height	Field Goals	Free Throws Made	Free Throws Missed	Pers. Fouls	Total Points
Voorhis, Bob	C	Jr.	6'2"	91	46	22	69	228

The Fighting Tigers

Cubs

The boys shown at the right composed this year's Tiger "Cubs." Hampered by the juggling of varsity and Cub men, the Cubs won 5 and lost 11 games. Several of these boys will advance to next year's varsity. Jim Hendrix's 151 points led all Cub scorers.

Freshmen

Settling down to play basketball, after getting off to a slow start, our Freshman team compiled a 5 won, 13 lost record in schedule and tourney play. Harlin Jones and Ross Pauley led the rhinies with 150 and 111 points, respectively. The Freshmen won their first tourney game but were defeated by Lafayette Jeff in the semi-finals. Lebanon lost to Delphi in the consolation while Jeff won tourney honors over Rossville.

Standing: Danny Hoffman, Mgr., Lawrence Shockley, Jim Whitehead, Aaron Stookey, Harlin Jones, Boyd Brindle, and Coach Don Guilford.

Junior High

The victors! After winning 9 and losing 10 games in regular season play, the Junior High cagers proved to be very poor hosts to the West Central Junior Basketball Conference Tournament. Coach Guilford's boys walloped Rossville 42-18, came 12 points from behind to upset the favorites, Frankfort, by a score of 26-22, and won the trophy, defeating Lafayette Jeff 41-31. Marshall Sheets with 132 points and Gary Scott with 97 provided the season and tourney scoring punch.

Track

Of the 12 boys pictured below 6 of these boys will form the nucleus of this spring's track squad. Failing to win any of their 5 last year meets, this year's thinly clad enter spring competition to compete in a total of 6 meets, including triangular meets with Attica, West Lafayette, and Noblesville, the latter being a night meet, and dual meets with Plainfield, Fowler and Sheridan.

As has been shown in the past years, the $\frac{1}{2}$ -mile relay team has proven to be one of the squad's greater assets.

Baseball

With the addition of the county baseball schedule in the fall to their regular spring schedule, the gold and black diamondmen now have a busy season. The 1949-50 squad entered the fall season lacking experience, but still compiled a 5 won, 2 lost record. A 7-game spring schedule with such name teams as Lafayette Jeff, Frankfort, Crawfordsville, and Zionsville awaits their return to the diamond.

My Classmates . . .

On the following pages you see our many shining countenances. In the group pictures already passed our relatives may not have been able to recognize us among all our friends as one of their own clan, but they are sure to recognize us here. Lebanon High School is proud to have each one of us as a part of this growing school.

The second semester enrollment totaled 622 for both the Junior and Senior High. The Junior High enrollment, seventh and eighth grades totaled 235.

Classes are not organized until the Junior and Senior year which accounts for the lack of class parties in lower grades.

Senior Class History

Well, as it happens to every class, we, the Class of 1950, enrolled in school September 1, 1950, as seniors, and graduation, always before a remote event, loomed not far before us. One of the reasons we were sad as we walked across the stage to get our diplomas, was that we had had such a lot of fun as upperclassmen.

Let's look way back to the fall of 1948 when we as last trotted down to the gym to elect our class officers for the first time in our high school career. We chose as our leaders Tom Honan, president, Dick Nichols as his right-hand man, and Faedetta Maple to make our financial reports and keep all records of our class meetings. We chose as sponsors Miss Ruth McLaughlin and Mr. Frank Griesemer. The sponsors and class officers selected 10 girls and 5 boys to sell cokes and candy at the ball games from which we made the money we needed for our later social activities.

On April 22, 1949, we gave the Junior-Senior Prom in honor of the Seniors of '49. The theme of the prom was "April Showers" and the weather proved just fine for the theme! Regardless of the rain we voted our prom to be the best of all proms in the history of LHS! Faedetta Maple was crowned queen of this gala event, with a court of six girls.

Then came the final year at LHS. Having been completely satisfied with the previous year's officers we chose the same ones to lead us again. This year we elected Miss Eileen Beckett and Mr. Glenn Maple as our faculty advisors. On October 21, we held our Senior Dinner Party, the theme of which was "The Green Years" representing the experiences we had had in obtaining our education.

Finally came Baccalaureate, Senior Class Night, and Commencement. On May 25 we ended our high school days and started out into the world as Lebanon High School alumni.

Officers and sponsors of the Junior class are: Mr. Kincaid, Helen Isen-

Antcliff, President; Leah Fern Hil-
and, Vice President; Mr. Davies.

Junior Class History

As upperclassmen for the first time the Juniors elected their first class officers. They chose Clifford Antcliff as president, Leah Fern Hiland, vice-president, and Helen Jean Isenhower as secretary-treasurer. Their sponsors were Mr. Will R. Davies and Mr. Jewell Kincaid.

As in the past the Juniors sold candy and cokes at the ball games as their project for raising funds to carry on their future class activities. Their candy-coke committee brightened up the ball games with the outfits they chose to wear which were for the girls grey corduroy skirts and yellow, short-sleeve sweaters, and for the boys grey corduroy trousers, and yellow, long-sleeve turtle-neck T-shirts.

On April 14, the Junior class gave the annual prom in honor of the graduating Seniors.
